Foreword

The integration of national economies and markets has increased substantially in recent years, putting a strain on the international tax rules, which were designed more than a century ago. Weaknesses in the current rules create opportunities for base erosion and profit shifting (BEPS), requiring bold moves by policy makers to restore confidence in the system and ensure that profits are taxed where economic activities take place and value is created.

Following the release of the report Addressing Base Erosion and Profit Shifting in February 2013, OECD and G20 countries adopted a 15-point Action Plan to address BEPS in September 2013. The Action Plan identified 15 actions along three key pillars: introducing coherence in the domestic rules that affect cross-border activities, reinforcing substance requirements in the existing international standards, and improving transparency as well as certainty.

After two years of work, measures in response to the 15 actions were delivered to G20 Leaders in Antalya in November 2015. All the different outputs, including those delivered in an interim form in 2014, were consolidated into a comprehensive package. The BEPS package of measures represents the first substantial renovation of the international tax rules in almost a century. Once the new measures become applicable, it is expected that profits will be reported where the economic activities that generate them are carried out and where value is created. BEPS planning strategies that rely on outdated rules or on poorly co-ordinated domestic measures will be rendered ineffective.

Implementation is now the focus of this work. The BEPS package is designed to be implemented via changes in domestic law and practices, and in tax treaties. With the negotiation of a multilateral instrument (MLI) having been finalised in 2016 to facilitate the implementation of the treaty related BEPS measures, 100 jurisdictions are covered by the MLI. The entry into force of the MLI on 1 July 2018 paves the way for swift implementation of the treaty related measures. OECD and G20 countries also agreed to continue to work together to ensure a consistent and co-ordinated implementation of the BEPS recommendations and to make the project more inclusive. Globalisation requires that global solutions and a global dialogue be established which go beyond OECD and G20 countries.

A better understanding of how the BEPS recommendations are implemented in practice could reduce misunderstandings and disputes between governments. Greater focus on implementation and tax administration should therefore be mutually beneficial to governments and business. Proposed improvements to data and analysis will help support ongoing evaluation of the quantitative impact of BEPS, as well as evaluating the impact of the countermeasures developed under the BEPS Project.

As a result, the OECD established the OECD/G20 Inclusive Framework on BEPS (Inclusive Framework), bringing all interested and committed countries and jurisdictions on an equal footing in the Committee on Fiscal Affairs and all its subsidiary bodies. The Inclusive Framework, which already has more than 140 members, is monitoring and peer reviewing the implementation of the minimum standards as well as completing the work on standard setting to address BEPS issues. In addition to BEPS members, other international organisations and regional tax bodies are involved in the work of the Inclusive Framework, which also consults business and the civil society on its different work streams.

This report was approved by the Inclusive Framework on 1 December 2022 and prepared for publication by the OECD Secretariat.

Executive summary

Context for the exchange of information on tax rulings (the “transparency framework”)

The BEPS Action 5 minimum standard on the compulsory spontaneous exchange of information on tax rulings (the “transparency framework”) provides tax administrations with timely information on rulings that have been granted to a foreign related party of their resident taxpayer or a permanent establishment, which can be used in conducting risk assessments and which, in the absence of exchange, could give rise to BEPS concerns.

The transparency framework requires spontaneous exchange of information on five categories of taxpayer-specific rulings: (i) rulings related to certain preferential regimes, (ii) unilateral advance pricing arrangements (APAs) or other cross-border unilateral rulings in respect of transfer pricing, (iii) rulings providing for a downward adjustment of taxable profits, (iv) permanent establishment (PE) rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.¹ The requirement to exchange information on the rulings in the above categories includes certain past rulings as well as future rulings, pursuant to pre-defined periods which are outlined in each jurisdiction’s report and that varies according to the time when a certain jurisdiction has joined the Inclusive Framework or has been identified as a Jurisdiction of Relevance. The exchanges occur pursuant to international exchange of information agreements, which provide the legal conditions under which exchanges take place, including the need to ensure taxpayer confidentiality.

The inclusion of the above categories of rulings in the scope of the transparency framework is not intended to suggest that the issuance of such rulings constitutes a preferential regime or a harmful tax practice. In practice, tax rulings can be an effective way to provide certainty to taxpayers and reduce the risk of disputes. Rather, the need for transparency on rulings is that a tax administration’s lack of knowledge or information on the tax treatment of a taxpayer in another jurisdiction can impact the treatment of transactions or arrangements undertaken with a related taxpayer resident in their own jurisdiction and thus lead to BEPS concerns. The availability of timely and targeted information about such rulings, as agreed in the template in Annex C of the Action 5 Report, Countering Harmful Tax Practices More Effectively, Taking Into Account Transparency and Substance (OECD, 2015^[1]), is intended to better equip tax authorities to quickly identify risk areas.

This framework was designed with a view to finding a balance between ensuring that the information exchanged is relevant to other tax administrations and that it does not impose an unnecessary administrative burden on either the country exchanging the information or the country receiving it.

Scope of this review

This is the sixth annual peer review of the transparency framework and covers 131 Inclusive Framework member jurisdictions and Jurisdictions of Relevance. This comprises all Inclusive Framework members that joined prior to 30 June 2021 and Jurisdictions of Relevance identified by the Inclusive Framework prior to 30 June 2021. Of these 131 jurisdictions, there were 28 jurisdictions which are not able to legally, or in practice, issue rulings in scope of the transparency framework, and therefore no separate peer review report is included for these jurisdictions.²

Eight other members of the Inclusive Framework have not been assessed under the transparency framework, namely Anguilla, the Bahamas, Bahrain, Bermuda, the British Virgin Islands, the Cayman Islands, the Turks and Caicos Islands and the United Arab Emirates. These jurisdictions do not impose any corporate income tax, and therefore cannot legally issue rulings within scope of the transparency framework and nor do Inclusive Framework members exchange information on rulings with them. Therefore, these jurisdictions are considered to be outside the scope of the transparency framework.

The reviews contained in this annual report cover the steps jurisdictions have taken to implement the transparency framework during the calendar year 2021. The reviews have been prepared using information from each reviewed jurisdiction, input from peers who received exchanges of information under the transparency framework, and input from the delegates of the Forum on Harmful Tax Practices (“FHTP”).

Key findings

Key findings from this sixth annual peer review include:

- As at 31 December 2021, over 23,000 tax rulings in scope of the transparency framework had been issued by the jurisdictions being reviewed. This is the cumulative figure, including certain past rulings issued since 2010. Over 1,800 tax rulings in scope of the transparency framework were issued in 2021 by the 131 jurisdictions reviewed.
- Almost 50,000 exchanges of information took place by 31 December 2021, with approximately 5,000 exchanges undertaken in 2021, 5,000 exchanges undertaken during 2020, 7,000 exchanges undertaken during 2019, 9,000 exchanges undertaken during 2018, 14,000 exchanges undertaken during 2017 and 6,000 exchanges during 2016.
- Out of the 131 reviewed jurisdictions, 73 jurisdictions did not receive any recommendations, as they have met all the terms of reference. A further 19 jurisdictions received only one recommendation.
- 61 recommendations for improvement have been made for the year in review.
- 80 peer input questionnaires were submitted providing feedback on the conduct of the exchanges by Inclusive Framework members. Peer input is not mandatory, but in cases where it was provided it has in a number of cases allowed jurisdictions to revise their processes and improve the clarity and quality of information exchanged.
- In a number of cases, the peer review process has assisted jurisdictions in identifying areas where improvement is required, and jurisdictions have been able to take action to implement changes over 2022 while the peer review was ongoing. Where these changes were implemented in 2022, they are generally not taken into account in the recommendations for the year 2021. However, these changes would be reviewed in a subsequent peer review.

Table 1. Compilation of recommendations

Aspect of the implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Albania
Albania does not yet have the necessary information gathering process in place.	Albania is recommended to put in place an effective information gathering process to identify all potential exchange jurisdictions for future rulings on preferential regimes and to implement a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible.
Albania does not yet have a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions.	Albania is recommended to continue to develop a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework.
Andorra
Andorra still experiences difficulties in identifying all potential exchange jurisdictions for future rulings.	Andorra is recommended to continue its efforts to ensure that all potential exchange jurisdictions are identified swiftly for all future rulings. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.
Andorra is still developing a process to ensure that the information is completed in the required form and exchanges are performed in accordance with the timelines.	Andorra is recommended to continue its efforts to put in place the necessary process to complete the information in the form of Annex C of the Action 5 Report, to ensure that information is submitted to the Competent Authority without undue delay and exchanges are performed in accordance with the timelines. These recommendations remain unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports but since the 2019 peer review report they are targeted to specific aspects of the ToR that still need to be put in place.
Angola
Angola has not yet finalised the steps to have in place its necessary information and gathering process.	Angola is recommended to finalise its information gathering process for identifying all past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.
Angola has not yet finalised the steps to have effective compulsory spontaneous exchange of information on the tax rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.	Angola is recommended to continue to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings and to continue its efforts to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.
Antigua and Barbuda
	No recommendations are made.
Argentina
	No recommendation are made.
Armenia
Armenia is in the process to finalise the information gathering process and to put in place a system for the identification and registration of issued tax rulings.	Armenia is recommended to continue its efforts to finalise and have in place the necessary information gathering process for identifying all relevant rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.
Armenia does not have a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions.	Armenia is recommended to continue its efforts to develop a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Benin has not finalised the steps to have in place its necessary information gathering process, with a review and supervision mechanism.	Benin is recommended to finalise its information gathering process for identifying all relevant rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.
Benin has not yet finalised the steps to have effective compulsory spontaneous exchange of information on the tax rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.	Benin is recommended to continue to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings and to continue its efforts to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.
Bosnia and Herzegovina
Bosnia and Herzegovina does not have specific mechanisms in place for identifying relevant rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions within the scope of the transparency framework as well as for reviewing and supervising that all relevant information is captured adequately.	Bosnia and Herzegovina is recommended to put in place its information gathering process for identifying all past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the prior year's peer review report.
Bosnia and Herzegovina does not yet have the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously and a process for completing the templates in a timely way.	Bosnia and Herzegovina is recommended to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings and to ensure the timely exchange of information on rulings in the form required by the transparency framework, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the prior year's peer review report.
Botswana
Botswana does not have a review and supervision mechanism in place.	Botswana is recommended to put in place a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Kazakhstan has not yet finalised the steps to have effective compulsory spontaneous exchange of information on the tax rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.	Kazakhstan is recommended to continue to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings and to continue its efforts to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

¹ The Action 5 Report, Countering Harmful Tax Practices More Effectively, Taking Into Account Transparency and Substance (OECD, 2015) also provides that additional types of rulings could be added to the scope of the transparency framework in the future, where the FHTP and the Inclusive Framework agree that such a ruling could lead to BEPS concerns in the absence of spontaneous information exchange.

² The relevant jurisdictions that do not issue rulings within the scope of the transparency framework are: Belize, Bulgaria, Cameroon, Cook Islands, Côte d'Ivoire, Djibouti, Dominica, Greenland, Haiti, Honduras, Macau (China), Maldives, Monaco, Mongolia, Montenegro, Montserrat, North Macedonia, Oman, Panama, Papua New Guinea, Paraguay, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Saudi Arabia, Serbia, Sierra Leone, Trinidad & Tobago, Tunisia, and Zambia.

1 Introduction

Overview of the peer review on the exchange of information on tax rulings

The Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[1]) is one of the four BEPS minimum standards. It involves two distinct aspects: a review of certain preferential tax regimes and substantial activities in no or only nominal tax jurisdictions to ensure they are not harmful, and the transparency framework. Each of the four BEPS minimum standards is subject to peer review in order to ensure timely and accurate implementation and thus safeguard the level playing field. All members of the Inclusive Framework on BEPS commit to implementing the Action 5 minimum standard and to participating in the peer review, on an equal footing. The peer review of the Action 5 minimum standard is undertaken by the FHTP and approved by the Inclusive Framework on BEPS.

The purpose of a peer review is to ensure the effective and consistent implementation of an agreed standard and to recognise progress made by jurisdictions in this regard. The peer review evaluates the implementation of the standard against an agreed set of criteria. These criteria are set out in terms of reference, which include each of the elements that a jurisdiction needs to demonstrate it has fulfilled in order to show effective implementation of the standard.¹

The peer review has been conducted in accordance with the agreed methodology. The methodology sets out the process for undertaking the peer review, including the process for collecting the relevant data, the preparation and approval of annual reports, the outputs of the review and the follow up process.

The terms of reference and agreed methodology do not alter the Action 5 minimum standard. Any terms used in the terms of reference or methodology take their meaning from the language and context of the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[1]) and the references therein. Any terms in this report which are not included in the glossary take their meaning from the language and context of the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[1]).

Outline of the key aspects assessed in the annual report

This annual report contains the findings of the sixth annual peer review of jurisdictions' compliance with the transparency framework. It assesses the implementation of the transparency framework for the period 1 January 2021 - 31 December 2021.

The reports on each reviewed jurisdiction cover each of the aspects of the terms of reference. These capture the key elements of the transparency framework which are briefly described below. Where recommendations from prior years' peer review reports were not addressed, the report specifically notes this. Jurisdictions are urged to address these recommendations that have remained in place for more than one review.

A. The information gathering process

This involves assessing the processes in place in each of the jurisdictions for identifying past and future rulings that fall within the scope of the transparency framework, and for each of these rulings, identifying the jurisdictions with which the information should be exchanged. The review of the information gathering process also covers any supervision mechanism that the jurisdiction has in place to ensure that all relevant information is captured adequately.

B. The exchange of information

The exchange of information requires the legal and administrative framework to be in place to allow spontaneous exchange of information on the relevant tax rulings and subsequent exchange of the relevant rulings where a valid exchange of information request is received. Information on past rulings was to be spontaneously exchanged pursuant to the relevant deadline outlined in each jurisdiction's report.² Information on future rulings is to be spontaneously exchanged as soon as possible and no later than three months after the date on which the ruling becomes available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information. The exchange of information should occur in the agreed standardised form, either using the template contained in Annex C of the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[1]) or the OECD XML Schema. Adequate completion of the summary section in the Annex C template or the OECD XML Schema should be ensured through adherence to the instruction sheet to the summary section or the internal FHTP suggested guidance, or an alternate process that allows the summary section to contain sufficient detail for the receiving jurisdiction's tax administration to appropriately assess the potential base erosion and profit shifting risks posed by the ruling where applicable.

The peer review includes reviewing (i) that there is a sufficient domestic and international legal framework for the exchange information related to rulings; (ii) that the summary templates for information on rulings being exchanged are complete and in the appropriate form; and (iii) that the systems are in place to ensure that information on rulings is transmitted to the jurisdiction's Competent Authority for exchange of information without undue delay and exchanged with relevant jurisdictions in accordance with the appropriate timelines.

With respect to the international exchange of information, the terms of reference required jurisdictions to exchange information with Inclusive Framework members being reviewed for the same year, to the extent that an exchange of information agreement was in force for such exchanges and subject to the recipient jurisdiction demonstrating that it would keep the information received confidential.³

C. Statistics

Each jurisdiction is required to report statistics on the exchange of information under the transparency framework including (i) the total number of spontaneous exchanges sent, (ii) the number of spontaneous exchanges under each category of ruling and (iii) a list of jurisdictions with which the information was exchanged for each type of ruling.

D. Exchange of information on IP regimes

The review of the transparency framework also includes a review of the spontaneous exchanges of information which are required to occur in respect of certain features of IP regimes, as set out in the Action 5 "nexus approach." This includes, irrespective of whether a tax ruling is provided, identifying and exchanging information on taxpayers which benefit from the third category of IP assets (as defined in paragraph 37 of the Action 5 Report), and taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption (as defined in paragraphs 67- 69 of the Action 5 Report). This aspect of the review is only relevant for those jurisdictions which offer IP regimes, and the minimum standard does not require any jurisdiction to introduce such a regime.

Spontaneous exchange of information is also required with respect to new entrants benefiting from grandfathered IP regimes (regardless of whether a ruling is provided). This applies with respect to IP regimes that were not compliant with the nexus approach, and where jurisdictions have taken steps to abolish the regime, or amend it, as part of the FHTP's regime review process. In some cases, when introducing those legislative changes, jurisdictions have chosen to provide grandfathering to existing taxpayers to provide time to transition to the new rules. Additional spontaneous exchange of information on the taxpayers benefiting from this grandfathering is required where taxpayers or new IP assets were transferred into a non-nexus IP regime in the period between the announcement of forthcoming changes and those changes taking place. The timelines for which enhanced transparency applies vary according to the time at which the FHTP reviewed the regime, and are set out in Annex A of the 2017 Progress Report on Preferential Regimes (OECD, 2017^[2]).

E. Response to the report

In addition, jurisdictions had the option to include a response to the report and update on recent developments which occurred after the 2021 year in review. Where included, this reflects the individual jurisdiction's views, and not those of the FHTP or the OECD Secretariat.

² The Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015) acknowledged that some jurisdictions may need to put in place the domestic or international legal framework in order to comply with the obligations under Action 5. In such cases the timelines for exchange of information on rulings are subject to a jurisdiction's legal framework.

Albania

Albania has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for having the necessary information gathering process in place (ToR I.A), and exchanging information on the tax rulings in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework (ToR II.B). Albania receives two recommendations on these points for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, Albania had received the same two recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Albania can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Albania issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Albania.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1. Albania can legally issue the following two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ and (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

2. For Albania, past rulings are any tax rulings issued prior to 1 March 2020. However, there is no obligation for Albania to conduct spontaneous exchange information on past rulings.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

3. For Albania, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 March 2020.

4. No future rulings were issued by Albania during the year in review.

5. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Albania issues rulings based on legal provisions and that the General Directorate of Taxation (GDT) identifies these rulings and has all relevant information in relation to APAs, including information on relevant exchange jurisdictions. Albania confirmed that taxpayers are required to provide information on related parties, as well immediate and ultimate parent companies at the time the request for a ruling is submitted to the tax administration as well as additional information at the request of the tax administration. Regarding rulings on preferential regimes, it was determined that there were no processes yet in place to ensure the identification of all relevant exchange jurisdictions and thus to ensure the implementation of the obligations relating to the transparency framework.

6. During the year in review, Albania did not provide additional information and was in the process of taking appropriate steps to implement the transparency framework and action the recommendations of the prior year's peer review report.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

7. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Albania did not yet have a review and supervision mechanism under the transparency framework. During the year in review, Albania did not implement such a review and supervision mechanism, and therefore the recommendation remains in place.

Conclusion on section A

8. Albania is recommended to put in place an effective information gathering process to identify all potential exchange jurisdictions for future rulings on preferential regimes and to implement a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

9. Albania has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Albania notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

10. Albania has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”) and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 43 jurisdictions.²

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

11. In the prior year’s peer review report, it was determined that Albania did not yet have a process to complete the templates on all relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions. Therefore, Albania was recommended to develop a process for the completion and exchange of information as soon as possible. During the year in review, Albania notes that it is currently in the process of taking appropriate steps.

12. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

Conclusion on section B

13. Albania is recommended to continue to develop a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework going forward (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

14. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

15. Albania does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Andorra

Andorra has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for identifying all potential exchange jurisdictions for future rulings (ToR I.A.2.1) and for ensuring that the information is completed in the required form (II.B.4) and exchanges are performed in accordance with the timelines (ToR II.B.5 and II.B.6). Andorra receives two recommendations on these points for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2017-2019 peer review reports, Andorra had received the same two recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Andorra can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Andorra issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.¹

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Andorra.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

16. Andorra can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;² (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

17. For Andorra, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015.

18. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Andorra's undertakings to identify past rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Andorra's implementation in this regard remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

19. For Andorra, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

20. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined future rulings were able to be identified, but that the information on potential exchange jurisdictions was not always being collected, and instead this was being performed by the application of the "best efforts approach." The prior years' reports noted that Andorra intended to amend the application process to require the taxpayer to identify all relevant jurisdictions when requesting the ruling. In the prior year's peer review report, Andorra also commented that during this year in review, it had drafted internal guidance and draft legislation, which was expected to be approved before the end of 2021.

21. However, this amendment did not take place during the year in review. Andorra expects to adopt this amendment in 2022. Andorra is therefore recommended to continue its efforts to ensure that all potential exchange jurisdictions are identified swiftly for all future rulings.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

22. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Andorra's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Andorra's implementation in this regard remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Conclusion on section A

23. Andorra has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process except for identifying all potential exchange jurisdictions for future rulings (ToR I.A.2.1). Andorra is recommended to ensure that all potential exchange jurisdictions are identified swiftly for all future rulings.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

24. Andorra has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Andorra notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

25. Andorra has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”) and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 28 jurisdictions.³

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

26. In the prior years’ peer review reports, it was determined that Andorra’s process for the completion and exchange of templates met all the ToR, except for undertaking spontaneous exchange of information on tax rulings within the scope of the transparency framework (ToR II.B). Therefore, Andorra was recommended to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible.

27. In the prior years’ peer review reports, it was determined that Andorra’s previously issued rulings related to preferential regimes were related to wholly domestic taxpayers without any related parties in a foreign jurisdiction, and therefore, no exchange of information needed to take place. However, in the event that a relevant ruling is issued in future, Andorra will need to have the processes in place to complete the templates and conduct the exchanges in accordance with the transparency framework.

28. In the prior years’ peer review reports, it was noted that Andorra intends to require taxpayers to provide all relevant information needed to complete the template contained in Annex C of the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]). Andorra is in the process of including such an obligation in future tax reforms.

29. As these issues have not yet been addressed, the recommendation remains in place. In particular, Andorra is recommended to ensure that the information on future rulings is completed in the form of the template contained in Annex C of the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) (ToR II.B.4), to put in place appropriate systems to ensure that information on rulings is transmitted to the competent authority responsible for international exchange of information without undue delay (ToR II.B.5) and to ensure that the information to be exchanged is transmitted to the relevant jurisdictions in accordance with the agreed timelines (ToR II.B.6).

30. As there were no exchanges for the year in review, no data on the timeliness of exchanges can be reported.

Conclusion on section B

31. Andorra has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process except for ensuring that the information is completed in the required form (II.B.4) and having a process in place to ensure any exchanges will be performed in accordance with the timelines (ToR II.B.5 and II.B.6). Andorra is recommended to continue its efforts to put in place the necessary process to complete the information in the form of Annex C of the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]), to ensure that information is submitted to the Competent Authority without undue delay and exchanges are performed in accordance with the timelines. These recommendations remain unchanged since the 2017, 2018 and 2019 peer review reports.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

32. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

33. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Andorra's information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes⁴ were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Andorra's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Andorra still experiences difficulties in identifying all potential exchange jurisdictions for future rulings.	Andorra is recommended to continue its efforts to ensure that all potential exchange jurisdictions are identified swiftly for all future rulings. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.
Andorra is still developing a process to ensure that the information is completed in the required form and exchanges are performed in accordance with the timelines.	Andorra is recommended to continue its efforts to put in place the necessary process to complete the information in the form of Annex C of the Action 5 Report, to ensure that information is submitted to the Competent Authority without undue delay and exchanges are performed in accordance with the timelines. These recommendations remain unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports but since the 2019 peer review report they are targeted to specific aspects of the ToR that still need to be put in place.

Notes

¹ In the prior years' peer review reports, it was noted that Andorra had issued 169 past and 58 future rulings. During the year in the review, an additional 34 rulings were identified. All those rulings were related to preferential regimes, but all taxpayers were domestic taxpayers (not part of a multinational group) and therefore no exchanges on these rulings were required for the Action 5 transparency framework.

Angola

Angola has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for identifying all past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions with a review and supervision mechanism (ToR I.A) and exchanging information on the tax rulings in a timely manner (ToR II.B). Angola receives two recommendations on this point for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2017-2019 peer review reports, Angola had received the same two recommendations. As they have not fully been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Angola can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Angola issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	0
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2017 – 31 December 2017	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	0
Future rulings in the year in review	0

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Angola.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

34. Angola can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

35. For Angola, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015.

36. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Angola has not recorded the information on the tax rulings issued with the necessary level of detail to meet the standard of the transparency framework and that the necessary information on past rulings is unlikely to be found on the available records. Angola noted that they are not required to exchange past rulings but did not identify any past rulings. Therefore, Angola was recommended to finalise its information gathering process for identifying all past rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions.

37. During the year in review, no additional implementation steps were taken.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

38. For Angola, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

39. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Angola was following guidelines covering which rulings would fall within the scope of the transparency framework and what information should be kept in order to meet the level of detail required by the transparency framework.

40. During the year in review, Angola started to identify all rulings that have been issued by the Angola Revenue Administration (AGT). In accordance with internal procedures, the different departments within AGT send the identified rulings to the International Cooperation Department. This department is responsible for analysing whether the rulings fall within the scope of the transparency framework. As this is still ongoing for rulings issued on or after 1 April 2017, the recommendation on this point remains in place.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

41. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Angola did not yet have a review and supervision mechanism for past rulings under the transparency framework. Angola implemented a review and supervision mechanism for future rulings by requiring that the information on tax rulings be recorded in hard copy and electronically in spreadsheets with the name, date and topic of the information requested or issue being complained or appealed. However, during the year in review, no additional implementation steps were taken.

Conclusion on section A

42. Angola is recommended to finalise its information gathering process for identifying all past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

43. Angola is currently in the process of putting in place the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Angola included a clause in its general tax code that allows the Angolan Revenue Administration to gather information from taxpayers.

44. Angola has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including bilateral agreements in force with two jurisdictions.² Angola is not a party to the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”). Angola is encouraged to continue its efforts to expand its international exchange of information instruments to be able to exchange information on rulings. It is noted, however, that jurisdictions are assessed on their compliance with the transparency framework in respect of the exchange of information network in effect for the year of the particular annual review.

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

45. In the prior years’ peer review reports, it was determined that Angola is still developing a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions. An information exchange unit was created to assume the role of the Competent Authority and Angola’s tax offices are henceforth required to send reports to this unit. Angola was negotiating to obtain an electronic tool for the exchange of information.

46. During the year in review, Angola obtained an electronic tool to exchange information, but Angola notes that it does not yet have the necessary tool to exchange information under the transparency framework.

47. As Angola did not have the necessary legal basis to conduct exchanges, no data on the timeliness of exchanges can be reported.

Conclusion on section B

48. Angola is recommended to continue its efforts to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings and to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

49. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

50. Angola does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Angola has not yet finalised the steps to have in place its necessary information and gathering process.	Angola is recommended to finalise its information gathering process for identifying all past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.
Angola has not yet finalised the steps to have effective compulsory spontaneous exchange of information on the tax rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.	Angola is recommended to continue to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings and to continue its efforts to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Antigua and Barbuda

Antigua and Barbuda has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review) and no recommendations are made.

Antigua and Barbuda can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Antigua and Barbuda issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Antigua and Barbuda.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

51. Antigua and Barbuda can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (ii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings.

52. For Antigua and Barbuda, past rulings are any tax rulings issued prior to 1 March 2019. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 March 2019.

53. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Antigua and Barbuda's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In the prior year, Antigua and Barbuda indicated the possibility to introduce an internal electronic repository of rulings issued. In the year in review, Antigua and Barbuda confirmed that rulings issued will be stored on the internal drive of the Competent Authority to facilitate electronic access to this information. In the year in review, Antigua and Barbuda has also advanced the drafting of the Tax Administration and Procedures Act (TAPA) Regulations to formally require that the necessary information to meet the requirements of the transparency framework would be obtained in all cases and indicated the intention to complete the regulations by the end of 2021. In addition, it was determined that Antigua and Barbuda's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Antigua and Barbuda's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

54. Antigua and Barbuda has met all of the ToR for the information gathering and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

55. Antigua and Barbuda has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Antigua and Barbuda notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

56. Antigua and Barbuda has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 11 jurisdictions and (iii) tax information exchange agreements in force with 11 jurisdictions.¹

57. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

58. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Antigua and Barbuda's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Antigua and Barbuda's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

59. Antigua and Barbuda has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information. Antigua and Barbuda has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

60. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

61. Antigua and Barbuda does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Argentina

Argentina has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Argentina can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Argentina issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	2
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	0
Future rulings in the year in review	0

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Argentina.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

62. Argentina can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

63. For Argentina, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

64. 65. Argentina has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

66. Argentina has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Argentina notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

67. Argentina has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 24 jurisdictions.²

68. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

69. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Argentina's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Argentina's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

70. Argentina has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Argentina has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

Armenia

Armenia is continuing to take steps to implement the aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the transparency framework and to commence administrative preparations to ensure that the necessary information gathering process for relevant rulings is finalised and in place (ToR I.A) and that information on rulings is exchanged in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework (ToR II.B). Armenia receives two recommendations on these points for the calendar year 2021 (year in review).

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2019 peer review report, Armenia had received the same recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Armenia can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Armenia issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Armenia.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

73. Armenia can legally issue the following two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ and (ii) permanent establishment rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

74. For Armenia, past rulings are any tax rulings issued prior to 1 September 2019. However, there is no obligation for Armenia to conduct spontaneous exchange information on past rulings.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

75. For Armenia, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 September 2019.

76. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that processes to ensure the implementation of the obligations relating to the transparency framework with regard to the information gathering process were not yet in place (ToR I.A). Therefore, Armenia was recommended to finalise its information gathering process for identifying all future rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions, as soon as possible.

77. During the year in review, Armenia indicates that a system is in the process of being finalised for the identification and registration of issued tax rulings. As this process is still ongoing, the previous years' recommendation remains in place.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

78. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Armenia's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Armenia's implementation in this regard remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Conclusion on section A

79. Armenia is recommended to continue its efforts to finalise and have in place the necessary information gathering process for identifying all relevant rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

80. Armenia has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Armenia notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

81. Armenia has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 50 jurisdictions.²

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

82. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Armenia's process for the completion and exchange of templates was not yet in place. Therefore, Armenia was recommended to develop a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework. With respect to past rulings, no action was required.

83. During the year in review, Armenia indicates that a system is in the process of being finalised for the completion and exchange of templates on relevant rulings according to the FHTP framework and timelines. As this process is still ongoing, the previous years' recommendation remains in place.

84. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

Conclusion on section B

85. Armenia has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information. Armenia is recommended to continue its efforts to develop a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework as soon as possible (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

86. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

87. Armenia does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Aruba

Aruba has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Aruba can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Aruba issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Aruba.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

88. Aruba can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

89. For Aruba, past rulings are any tax rulings issued prior to 1 September 2018. However, there is no obligation for Aruba to conduct spontaneous exchange information on past rulings. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 September 2018.

90. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Aruba's undertakings to identify future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Aruba's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Aruba's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

91. Aruba has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

92. Aruba has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Aruba notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

Australia

Australia has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Australia can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Australia issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	202
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	15
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	13
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	10
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	15
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	17
Future rulings in the year in review	2

Peer input was received from one jurisdiction in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Australia. The input was generally positive, noting that overall information was complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

99. Australia can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

100. For Australia, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

101. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Australia's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Australia's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Australia's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

102. Australia has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

103. Australia has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Australia notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

104. Australia has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011_[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 45 jurisdictions.²

105. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	4	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
		0	N/A

106. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Australia's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Australia's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

107. Australia has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Australia has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

108. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Austria

Austria has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Austria can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Austria issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	59
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	13
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	10
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	9
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	14
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	23
Future rulings in the year in review	18

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Austria.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

110. Austria can legally issue the following three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (ii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iii) related party conduit rulings.

111. For Austria, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

112. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Austria's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Austria's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Austria's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

113. Austria has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

114. Austria has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Austria notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

115. Austria has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 83 jurisdictions.¹

116. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	28	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
		0	N/A

117. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Austria recorded less exchanges than rulings because rulings issued in late 2020 were exchanged in a timely manner in early 2021. These exchanges are reported in the statistics for the year in review.

118. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Austria's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Austria's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

119. Austria has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Austria has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

120. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Barbados

Barbados has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2017-2019 peer review reports, Barbados had received a recommendation for identifying and exchanging information on all new entrants to the grandfathered IP regime (ToR I.A.1.3). Barbados has resolved this issue and therefore the recommendation is now removed.

Barbados can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Barbados issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	2
Future rulings in the period 1 September 2017 – 31 December 2017	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	1
Future rulings in the year in review	1

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Barbados.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

122. Barbados can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

123. For Barbados, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 September 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 September 2017.

124. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Barbados's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Barbados's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Barbados's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

125. Barbados has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

126. Barbados has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 40 jurisdictions.²

127. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	1	0	N/A	N/A

Follow up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

128. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Barbados's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Barbados's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

129. Barbados has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Barbados has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

130. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	0	N/A
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	0	N/A
Cross-border rulings providing for a unilateral downward adjustment to the taxpayer's taxable profits that is not directly reflected in the taxpayer's financial / commercial accounts	0	N/A
Permanent establishment rulings	De minimis rule applies	N/A
Related party conduit rulings	0	N/A
De minimis rule	1	N/A
IP regimes: total exchanges on taxpayers benefitting from the third category of IP assets, new entrants benefitting from grandfathered IP regimes; and taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption	0	N/A
Total	1

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

131. Barbados offered two intellectual property regimes (IP regime)³ that were abolished as of 1 July 2018 and are subject to transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015_[2]). It states that the identification of the benefitting taxpayers will occur as follows:

- New entrants benefitting from the grandfathered IP regime: Transparency obligations apply for the two regimes, because grandfathering is provided to entrants that entered the regime after the relevant date from which enhanced transparency obligations apply. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Barbados changed its law to require taxpayers to declare IP property and additional information to identify related party transactions. In parallel, the Barbados Revenue Authority (BRA) conducted an assessment based on the financial statements of newly formed International Business Companies and International Societies with Restricted Liability. As a result, the BRA identified two new entrants that potentially benefitted from the grandfathered IP regime, but is still auditing these entities. During the year in review, Barbados confirmed that, based on the findings of the audits, the two entities did not benefit from the grandfathered regime. Therefore, Barbados has now finalised the identification process and concluded that no exchanges were required. Hence, the recommendation to identify and exchange information on all new entrants to the grandfathered IP regime as soon as possible (ToR I.A.1.3) can be removed.
- Third category of IP assets: not applicable as the IP regimes has been abolished.
- Taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption: not applicable as the IP regimes has been abolished.

³ There were 523 unique exchanges. The total of number of exchanges given in this table, 567, is higher due to the fact that some exchanges relate to rulings that fall under more than one category.

Benin

Benin is taking steps to implement the legal basis for the transparency framework and to commence administrative preparations (in accordance with the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) to ensure that it establishes an information gathering process (ToR I.A) and that information on rulings will be identified and exchanged in a timely manner (ToR II.B). Benin receives two recommendations on these points for the calendar year 2021 (year in review).

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2018 and 2019 peer review reports, Benin had received the same two recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Benin can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Benin issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Benin.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

143. Benin can legally issue the following one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: permanent establishment rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

144. For Benin, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Benin issued no past rulings within the scope of the transparency framework. As such, there was no need to identify potential exchange jurisdictions.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

145. For Benin, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

146. In the prior years' peer review reports, Benin indicated that there were no processes in place for the record keeping of rulings for the purposes of the transparency framework. It was also noted that Benin intended to implement guidelines to ensure the necessary information to meet the requirements of the transparency framework is required in all cases. Therefore, Benin was recommended to finalise its information gathering process for identifying all relevant rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions, as soon as possible.

147. During the year in review, no additional steps to finalise its information gathering process were taken, and therefore the prior years' recommendation remains in place.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

148. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Benin did not yet have a review and supervision mechanism under the transparency framework. Therefore, Benin was recommended to put in place a review and supervision mechanism as soon as possible. Benin was in the process of considering the implementation of a review and supervision mechanism for ensuring implementation of the transparency framework. During the year in review, no additional steps were taken, and therefore the prior year recommendation remains.

Conclusion on section A

149. Benin is recommended to finalise its information gathering process for identifying all relevant rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

150. Benin is still in the process of putting in place the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously.

151. Benin does not have currently in effect an agreement that would allow for spontaneous exchange of information under the transparency framework. Benin signed the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") in November 2019, but Benin has not yet ratified the Convention, even if this process is currently undergoing. Benin is encouraged to continue its efforts to ratify the Convention and expand its international exchange of information instruments to be able to exchange information on rulings. It is noted, however, that jurisdictions are assessed on their compliance with the transparency framework in respect of the exchange of information network in effect for the year of the particular annual review.

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

152. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Benin was developing a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions.

153. During the year in review, no additional steps were taken, and therefore the prior year recommendation remains.

154. As no exchanges were required to take place for the year in review, no data on the timeliness of exchanges can be reported.

Conclusion on section B

155. Benin is recommended to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings and to continue its efforts to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

156. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

157. Benin does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Benin has not finalised the steps to have in place its necessary information gathering process, with a review and supervision mechanism.	Benin is recommended to finalise its information gathering process for identifying all relevant rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.
Benin has not yet finalised the steps to have effective compulsory spontaneous exchange of information on the tax rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.	Benin is recommended to continue to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings and to continue its efforts to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Bosnia and Herzegovina

Bosnia and Herzegovina is taking steps to implement the aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) for the transparency framework, including the legal basis, and to commence administrative preparations to ensure that the necessary information gathering process for relevant rulings is in place (ToR I.A) and that information on rulings is exchanged in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework (ToR II.B). Bosnia and Herzegovina receives two recommendations on these points for the calendar year 2021 (year in review).

In the prior year's peer review report, Bosnia and Herzegovina had received the same two recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Bosnia and Herzegovina can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Bosnia and Herzegovina issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

158. Bosnia and Herzegovina can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (ii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings. It is noted that the Tax Administration in the Bosnia and Herzegovina entity of Republic of Srpska is the only authority issuing rulings in scope of the FHTP work.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

159. For Bosnia and Herzegovina, past rulings are any tax rulings issued prior to 1 March 2020. However, there is no obligation for Bosnia and Herzegovina to conduct spontaneous exchange information on past rulings.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

160. For Bosnia and Herzegovina, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 March 2020. No rulings were issued by Bosnia and Herzegovina during the year in review.

161. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Bosnia and Herzegovina did not yet have specific mechanisms in place for identifying future rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions within the scope of the transparency framework. Therefore, Bosnia and Herzegovina was recommended to put in place an effective information gathering process to identify all relevant future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions, as soon as possible. During the year in review, Bosnia and Herzegovina did not implement such mechanisms. As this process is still under development, the previous year recommendation remains in place.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

162. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Bosnia and Herzegovina did not yet have a review and supervision mechanism under the transparency framework. Therefore, Bosnia and Herzegovina was recommended to implement a review and supervision mechanism as soon as possible. During the year in review, Bosnia and Herzegovina did not implement such a review and supervision mechanism. As this process is still under development, the previous year recommendation remains in place.

Conclusion on section A

163. Bosnia and Herzegovina does not have specific mechanisms in place for identifying relevant rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions within the scope of the transparency framework as well as for reviewing and supervising that all relevant information is captured adequately. Bosnia and Herzegovina is recommended to put in place its information gathering process for identifying all past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

164. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Bosnia and Herzegovina did not yet have the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Bosnia and Herzegovina can only exchange information on request. Therefore, Bosnia and Herzegovina was recommended to put in place the necessary domestic legal basis allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings. During the year in review, Bosnia and Herzegovina did not introduce such a domestic legal framework. As this process is still under development, the previous year recommendation remains in place.

165. Bosnia and Herzegovina has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 38 jurisdictions.¹

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

166. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Bosnia and Herzegovina did not yet have a process to exchange information on rulings in accordance with the form and timelines required by the transparency framework. Therefore, Bosnia and Herzegovina was recommended to develop a process for the completion and exchange of information on relevant rulings going forward. With respect to past rulings, no action was required. During the year in review, Bosnia and Herzegovina did not introduce such a process. As this process is still under development, the previous year recommendation remains in place.

167. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

Conclusion on section B

168. Bosnia and Herzegovina does not yet have the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously and a process for completing the templates in a timely way. Bosnia and Herzegovina is recommended to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings and to ensure the timely exchange of information on rulings in the form required by the transparency framework, as soon as possible (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

169. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

170. Bosnia and Herzegovina does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Botswana

Botswana has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for having in place a review and supervision mechanism (ToR I.A.3) and having a domestic legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information and exchanging information on the tax rulings in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework (ToR II.B). Botswana receives two recommendations on these points for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2018 and 2019 peer review reports, Botswana had received the same two recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Botswana can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Botswana issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	10
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2018 – 31 December 2018	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	3
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	2
Future rulings in the year in review	0

As no exchanges took place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Botswana.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

171. Botswana can legally issue the following three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; and (iii) permanent establishment rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

172. For Botswana, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2016 but before 1 April 2018; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 January 2016, provided still in effect as at 1 January 2016.

173. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Botswana's undertakings to identify past rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Botswana's implementation in this regard remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

174. For Botswana, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2018.

175. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Botswana's implementation of a new system to identify future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Botswana's implementation in this regard remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

176. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Botswana did not yet have a review and supervision mechanism for past and future rulings under the transparency framework. Therefore, Botswana was recommended to put in place a review and supervision mechanism as soon as possible.

177. During the year in review, no additional work was undertaken and therefore, the prior years' recommendation remains.

Conclusion on section A

178. Botswana has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process except for having in place a review and supervision mechanism. Botswana is recommended to put in place a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A.3).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

179. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Botswana did not have the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Botswana can only exchange information on request. Botswana is undergoing a comprehensive reform of its tax laws. Botswana notes that it has commenced a review of the exchange of information legislative framework with the support of the African

Tax Administration Forum (ATAF) with a view to correcting identified shortcomings in this area. Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, this review has been delayed.

180. Botswana has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[11]) (“the Convention”) and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 27 jurisdictions.² Botswana signed the Convention on 29 September 2020 and deposited its instrument of ratification on 15 June 2021. The Convention entered into force on 1 October 2021 and will have effect for administrative assistance related to taxable periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022. No exchanges could occur under the Convention for the year in review.

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

181. In the prior years’ peer review reports, it was determined that Botswana is currently developing a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions.

182. During the year in review, no exchanges took place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

Conclusion on section B

183. Botswana is recommended to continue its efforts to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings and to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

184. As there was no information on rulings exchanged by Botswana for the year in review, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

185. In the prior years’ peer review reports, it was determined that Botswana’s information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes³ were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Botswana’s implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Botswana does not have a review and supervision mechanism in place.	Botswana is recommended to put in place a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Brazil

Brazil has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Brazil can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Brazil issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	10
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	2
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	5
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	0
Future rulings in the year in review	0

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Brazil.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

186. Brazil can legally issue the following two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes¹ and (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles.

187. For Brazil, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

188. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Brazil's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Brazil's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard.

189. In the prior year's peer review report, it was noted that Brazil undertook a full review of all tax rulings issued both by the central taxation unit and the local taxation units and identified two additional rulings issued in 2018. Brazil had quickly taken steps to identify and remedy the issue and, therefore, as this is not expected to be a recurring issue, no recommendations were made. Brazil confirms that this issue has not recurred in the year in review.

190. Brazil has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

191. Brazil has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Brazil notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

192. Brazil has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 36 jurisdictions and (iii) tax information exchange agreements in force with two jurisdictions.²

193. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

194. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Brazil's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Brazil's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

195. As noted in the previous section, in the prior year's peer review report, Brazil identified two additional rulings issued by the local taxation units in 2018 that were not otherwise identified in the prior year and therefore not previously transmitted to the Competent Authority for the exchanges with the relevant jurisdiction(s). No recommendations were made, because Brazil completed the exchanges on the additional future rulings as soon as the issues were identified and resolved, and this was not expected to be a recurring issue. Brazil confirms that this issue has not recurred in the year in review.

196. Brazil has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Brazil has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

197. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

198. Brazil does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Brunei Darussalam has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Brunei Darussalam can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Brunei Darussalam issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Brunei Darussalam.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

199. Brunei Darussalam can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

200. For Brunei Darussalam, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

201. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Brunei Darussalam's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Brunei Darussalam's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Brunei Darussalam's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

202. Brunei Darussalam has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

203. Brunei Darussalam has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 18 jurisdictions.²

204. As Brunei Darussalam did not issue any future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework in the relevant period, Brunei Darussalam was not required to exchange any information on rulings in the year in review and no data on the timeliness of exchanges can be reported.

205. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Brunei Darussalam's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Brunei Darussalam's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

206. Brunei Darussalam has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information. Brunei Darussalam has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

207. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

208. Brunei Darussalam does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Burkina Faso

Burkina Faso is taking steps to implement the aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the transparency framework and to commence administrative preparations to ensure that it establishes an information gathering process (ToR I.A) and that information on rulings will be identified and exchanged in a timely manner (ToR II.B). Burkina Faso receives two recommendations on these points for the year in review.

In the 2017, 2018 and 2019 peer review reports, it was determined that Burkina Faso could not issue advance rulings under the transparency framework due to the lack of an administrative process to make such rulings binding within the tax administration. The administrative process was put in place in 2020.

In the prior year's peer review report, Burkina Faso had received two recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Burkina Faso can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, it is not known whether Burkina Faso issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Burkina Faso.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

209. Burkina Faso can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes; (ii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings. Based on the responses to the questionnaire for the year 2021, it is understood that Burkina Faso cannot issue rulings on cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

210. For Burkina Faso, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015.

211. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Burkina Faso could not issue rulings under the transparency framework before 2020, therefore this section is not evaluated.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

212. For Burkina Faso, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

213. Based on the responses to the questionnaire for the year 2021, Burkina Faso indicates that it has issued a decision on preferential regimes, but it is unclear what specific regime the decision was issued on and whether it is a regime allowing preference to income from geographically mobile activities (such as financial and other services) or the provision of intangible, which would therefore fall under Action 5. However, Burkina Faso has not yet put in place a process to report rulings for the purposes of the transparency framework.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

214. During the year in review, it was determined that Burkina Faso did not yet have a review and supervision mechanism for past rulings under the transparency framework.

Conclusion on section A

215. Burkina Faso is recommended to put in place its information gathering process for identifying all past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

216. Burkina Faso has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Burkina Faso notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

217. Burkina Faso has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including bilateral agreements in force with nine jurisdictions.¹ Burkina Faso signed the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol

(OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[11]) (“the Convention”), but has not yet ratified the Convention. Burkina Faso is encouraged to continue its efforts to expand its international exchange of information instruments to be able to exchange information on rulings. It is noted, however, that jurisdictions are assessed on their compliance with the transparency framework in respect of the exchange of information network in effect for the year of the particular annual review.

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

218. Based on the responses to the questionnaire for the year 2021, Burkina Faso reports having made two exchanges of information relating to rulings under the transparency framework. However, it is not clear whether they were made before 31 December 2021 or later and under which categories of rulings they fall.

219. During the year in review, Burkina Faso has not yet put in place a process to develop templates on relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions.

Conclusion on section B

220. Burkina Faso is recommended to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings and to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

221. As there was no information on rulings exchanged by Burkina Faso for the year in review, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

222. Burkina Faso does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[21]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Burkina Faso has not taken all measures to put in place the required information gathering process.	Burkina Faso is recommended to finalise its information gathering process and implement a review and supervision mechanism as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the prior year’s peer review report.
Burkina Faso has not yet put in place the process to develop templates on relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions.	Burkina Faso is recommended to establish a process to develop templates on relevant rulings and ensure that information on these rulings is exchanged in a timely manner and in the format required by the transparency framework. This recommendation remains unchanged since the prior year’s peer review report.

Jurisdiction's response and recent developments

223. Burkina Faso provided an updated peer review questionnaire to the Secretariat beyond the timelines set in the methodology for the conduct of the peer reviews of the Action 5 transparency framework. The updated questionnaire indicated that Burkina Faso could legally issue rulings within the five types of categories in scope of the transparency framework but no rulings have been issued in 2021. Burkina Faso indicated that a mechanism for identifying all future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, is currently being considered. Burkina Faso indicated that the instrument of ratification of the Convention was deposited on 29 August 2022. The Convention will enter into force on 1 December 2022 and into effect on 1 January 2023. Burkina Faso noted that the information exchange process is documented in the information exchange procedures manual, which is currently being approved. Input received and further steps undertaken by Burkina Faso will be taken into account in the 2023 peer review process.

Cabo Verde

Cabo Verde has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for exchanging information on the tax rulings in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework (ToR II.B). Cabo Verde receives one recommendation on this point for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2019 peer review report, Cabo Verde had received the same recommendation. As it has not been addressed, the recommendation remains in place.

Cabo Verde can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Cabo Verde issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Cabo Verde.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

224. Cabo Verde can legally issue the following three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; and (iii) permanent establishment rulings. During the year in review, Cabo Verde confirmed the possibility to issue rulings also on preferential regimes and cross-border unilateral tax rulings.

225. For Cabo Verde, past rulings are any tax rulings issued prior to 1 March 2019. However, there is no obligation for Cabo Verde to conduct spontaneous exchange of information on past rulings. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 March 2019.

226. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Cabo Verde's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Cabo Verde's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. During the year in review, Cabo Verde restated its intention to formalise these processes aimed at capturing the information adequately by developing guidance covering the information gathering process as well as the implementation of a revision and supervision mechanism for future rulings, including appropriate training for the relevant tax officers. Cabo Verde's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

227. Cabo Verde has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

228. Cabo Verde has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Cabo Verde notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

229. Cabo Verde has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with two jurisdictions.²

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

230. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Cabo Verde did not have a process in place to complete the templates on relevant rulings in the agreed form, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information without undue delay, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions in accordance with the agreed timelines. Therefore, Cabo Verde was recommended to develop a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework going forward. With respect to past rulings, no action was required. During the year in review, Cabo Verde indicated that this process is not yet in place and internal guidance is in the process of being developed to address this issue. Therefore, the prior year recommendation remains.

231. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

Conclusion on section B

232. Cabo Verde has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information. Cabo Verde does not have a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings and to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information.

233. Cabo Verde is recommended to continue its efforts to develop a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework as soon as possible (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

234. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

235. Cabo Verde does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Canada

Canada has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Canada can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Canada issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	12
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	2
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	2
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	1
Future rulings in the year in review	1

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Canada.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

236. Canada can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings.

237. For Canada, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

238. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Canada's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Canada's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Canada's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

239. Canada has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

240. Canada has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Canada notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

241. Canada has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011_[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 94 jurisdictions.²

242. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	2	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
		0	N/A

243. Canada notes that the exchanges relate to a ruling issued in 2020, which, as noted in the prior year review report, was submitted to its competent authority in late December 2020 and exchanged in January 2021. The ruling issued in 2021 was also submitted to the competent authority in late December and subsequently exchanged in January 2022. This will be reflected in next year's report.

244. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Canada's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Canada's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

245. Canada has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Canada has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

246. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Chile

Chile has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Chile can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Chile issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	0
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	2
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	0
Future rulings in the year in review	3

Peer input was received from one jurisdiction in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Chile. The input was positive, noting that information was complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

248. Chile can legally issue the following two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; and (ii) related party conduit rulings.

249. For Chile, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

250. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Chile's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Chile's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Chile's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

251. Chile has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

252. Chile has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Chile notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

253. Chile has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 33 jurisdictions.¹

254. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	2	1	See below.	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
		0	N/A

255. Chile notes that the delay relates to the belated identification of an exchange jurisdiction, and the exchange took place in 2022. Chile confirms that this was a non-recurring issue. This will be reflected in next year's report.

256. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Chile's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Chile's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

257. Chile has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Chile has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

258. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	De minimis rule applies	N/A
Related party conduit rulings	0	N/A

Chile also has bilateral agreements with Argentina, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, China (People's Republic of), Colombia, Croatia, Czech Republic, Denmark, Ecuador, France, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Mexico, Norway, New Zealand, Paraguay, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Russia, Spain, South Africa, Sweden, Switzerland, Thailand, United Kingdom and Uruguay.

China (People's Republic of)

China has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

China can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, China issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	11
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	6
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	3
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	2
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	4
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	15
Future rulings in the year in review	4

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from China.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

260. China can legally issue one type of ruling within the scope of the transparency framework: cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles.

261. There was previously a legal barrier to the exchange of information on rulings in China, which did not allow the exchange of past rulings. The legal framework in China was subsequently amended to allow exchanges on future rulings. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

262. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that China's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that China's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. China's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

263. China has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

264. China has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. China notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

265. China has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 100 jurisdictions.¹

266. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	31	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

267. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that China's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. China's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

268. China has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. China has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

269. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	31	Hong Kong (China), Japan, Macau (China), Russia, Singapore, United States

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

270. China does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Colombia

Colombia has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Colombia can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Colombia issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	1
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	0

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Colombia.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

271. Colombia can legally issue the following type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles.

272. For Colombia, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

273. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Colombia's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Colombia's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Colombia's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

274. Colombia has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

275. Colombia has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Colombia notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

276. Colombia has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 13 jurisdictions, (iii) regional instruments in force with three jurisdictions and (iv) tax information exchange agreements with one jurisdiction.¹

277. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

278. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Colombia's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Colombia's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

279. Colombia has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Colombia has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Congo

Congo did not provide a completed peer review questionnaire to the Secretariat. It is not known whether Congo has implemented the transparency framework in line with the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review). Congo receives two recommendations covering the information gathering process (ToR I.A) and exchange of information (ToR II.B) for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2017-2019 peer review reports, Congo had received the same recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Congo can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Congo did not issue any type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework in previous years. For the year in review, as well as for the two prior years, it is not known whether Congo issued any type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

282. Congo can legally issue the following two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles and (ii) permanent establishment rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

283. For Congo, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015.

284. In the 2018 peer review report, it was determined that Congo issued no past rulings in scope of the transparency framework. As such, this section is not assessed.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

285. For Congo, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

286. In the 2018 peer review report, Congo indicated that there were no processes in place for the record keeping of rulings for the purposes of the transparency framework. It was noted that Congo intended to implement guidelines and practices to make sure the necessary information to meet the requirements of the transparency framework is required in all cases. Congo was recommended to finalise its information gathering process as soon as possible.

287. During the year in review, as it is not known whether Congo has finalised its information gathering process, the recommendation remains in place.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

288. In the 2018 peer review report, it was determined that Congo did not yet have a review and supervision mechanism under the transparency framework. Congo was in the process of considering the implementation of a revision and supervision mechanism for ensuring implementation of the transparency framework. As it is not known whether Congo has put in place a review and supervision mechanism under the transparency framework for the year in review, the recommendation remains in place.

Conclusion on section A

289. Congo is recommended to finalise its information gathering process, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

290. In the 2018 peer review report, it was determined that Congo was in the process of putting in place the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. It is not known whether Congo has already put in place the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously for the year in review.

291. Congo has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including bilateral agreements in force with 3 jurisdictions.¹ Congo is not a party to the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”). Congo is encouraged to continue its efforts to expand its international exchange of information instruments to be able to exchange information on rulings. It is noted, however, that jurisdictions are assessed on their compliance with the transparency framework in respect of the exchange of information network in effect for the year of the particular annual review.

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

292. In the 2018 peer review report, it was determined that Congo was developing a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions. It is not known whether Congo has already put in place such a process for the year in review.

293. As it is not known whether exchanges took place in the year of review, no data on the timeliness of exchanges can be reported.

Conclusion on section B

294. Congo is recommended to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings and to continue its efforts to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

295. As it is not known whether information on rulings was exchanged by Congo for the year in review, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

296. Congo does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
It is not known whether Congo has finalised the steps to have in place its necessary information and gathering process.	Congo is recommended to finalise its information gathering process, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.
It is not known whether Congo has finalised the steps to have effective compulsory spontaneous exchange of information on the tax rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.	Congo is recommended to continue to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings and to continue its efforts to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Costa Rica

Costa Rica has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Costa Rica can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Costa Rica issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	6
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2017 – 31 December 2017	3
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	4
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	3
Future rulings in the year in review	9

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Costa Rica.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

297. Costa Rica can legally issue the following two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; and (ii) permanent establishment rulings.

298. For Costa Rica, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

299. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Costa Rica's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Costa Rica's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Costa Rica's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

300. Costa Rica has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

301. Costa Rica has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Costa Rica notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

302. Costa Rica has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Convention on Mutual Assistance and Technical Cooperation between Tax and Customs Administrations of Central America, (iii) bilateral agreements in force with four jurisdictions and (iv) tax information exchange agreements in force with two jurisdictions.¹

303. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	6	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

304. Costa Rica notes that three of the nine rulings issued during the year in review were issued in December 2021 and exchanged in February and March 2022 (which is within the Action 5 timelines). This will be reflected in next year's peer review report.

305. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Costa Rica's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Costa Rica's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

306. Costa Rica has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Costa Rica has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

307. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	0	N/A
Permanent establishment rulings	6	Denmark, France, Netherlands, Panama, Switzerland
Total	6

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

308. Costa Rica does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Costa Rica is also party to the Convention on Mutual Assistance and Technical Cooperation between Tax and Customs Administrations of Central America including El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras and Nicaragua. Costa Rica has bilateral tax agreements with Germany, Mexico, Spain, and United Arab Emirates, and tax information exchange agreements with Argentina and the United States, the latter renewed in September 2020. All these agreements allow spontaneous exchange of information.

Croatia

Croatia has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Croatia can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Croatia issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	0
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2017 – 31 December 2017	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	0
Future rulings in the year in review	1

As no exchanges took place during the year in review, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Croatia.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

309. Croatia can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (ii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings.

310. For Croatia, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

311. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Croatia's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Croatia's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Croatia's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

312. Croatia has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

313. Croatia has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Croatia notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

314. Croatia has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 66 jurisdictions.¹

315. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	0	1	See below	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

316. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Croatia's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. During the year in review, Croatia identified one ruling that had not yet been exchanged and therefore, the exchange was transmitted with a delay in early 2022. Croatia notes that immediate action was undertaken after this delay had occurred, by updating the existing instructions on the implementation of the exchange of information on rulings and updating the Manual on Automatic Exchange of Information. Therefore, Croatia's implementation in this regard continues to meet the minimum standard.

317. Croatia has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Croatia has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

318. As no exchanges took place during the year in review, no statistics can be reported. The exchange transmitted with a delay will be included in next year's peer review report.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

319. Croatia does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Curaçao

Curaçao has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for identifying rulings within the scope of the transparency framework and under which category of rulings they fall (ToR I.A.1.1 and ToR I.A.1.2) and completing exchanges of information on rulings in accordance with the timelines (ToR II.B.5 and II.B.6). Curaçao receives two recommendations on these points for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2017-2019 peer review reports, Curaçao received the same two recommendations. As they have not been fully addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Curaçao can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Curaçao issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	2 414
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2017 – 31 December 2017	320
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	48
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	40
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	20
Future rulings in the year in review	0

As no exchanges took place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Curaçao.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

320. Curaçao can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

321. For Curaçao, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015.

322. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Curaçao's undertakings to identify past rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions have met all the ToR, except for completing the process of reviewing the templates to confirm that all past rulings identified are cross-border rulings and therefore within the scope of the transparency framework, and to identify which category of rulings they fall under (ToR I.4.1.2). In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that, due to the Covid-19 pandemic, Curaçao was not able to fully continue its work to accurately identify and categorise past rulings. Therefore, this process was still ongoing given the large number of rulings, many of which fall into more than one category. It was also noted that Curaçao was identifying the potential exchange jurisdictions. Curaçao anticipated to complete this process by the end of March 2022. Therefore, Curaçao was recommended to continue its work to complete its information gathering process on past rulings as soon as possible.

323. During the year in review, Curaçao continued this work and accordingly provided new statistics on past rulings, as part of the previously identified past rulings do not fall within the scope of one of the categories of the transparency framework. However, Curaçao notes that it was not able to finalise this process due to a change of government and the government new priorities program addressing more urgent issues such as a liquidity crisis, as well as lockdowns and the financial economic consequences hereof during the year in review. Curaçao anticipates that this process will be completed by the end of 2023. Therefore, the prior years' recommendation remains.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

324. For Curaçao, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

325. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Curaçao's undertakings to identify future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions have met all the ToR, except for completing the process of reviewing the templates to confirm that all future rulings identified are cross border rulings and therefore within the scope of the transparency framework, and to identify which category each ruling falls under (ToR I.4.1.2). In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that, due to the Covid-19 pandemic, Curaçao was not able to fully continue its work on reviewing future rulings in order to identify all rulings within the scope of the transparency framework and assess the definitive number of rulings per category. It was also noted that Curaçao was identifying the potential exchange jurisdictions. This process was still ongoing with respect to future rulings issued before July 2018, when a new procedure requiring future rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions to be immediately identified at the point of issue was put in place. Curaçao anticipated to complete this process by the end of March 2022. Therefore, Curaçao was recommended to continue its work to complete its information-gathering process on future rulings as soon as possible.

326. In the prior year's peer review report, it was also noted that Curaçao developing an electronic online system to digitalise the ruling request process. This new electronic procedure was intended to further increase the speed and accuracy of the information gathering process in future. Curaçao noted that this electronic system is expected to be in place in 2023.

327. During the year in review, Curaçao continued this work and accordingly also provided statistics on future rulings for the year in review. However, Curaçao notes that it was not able to finalise this process due to a change of government and the government new priorities program addressing more urgent issues such as a liquidity crisis, as well as lockdowns and the financial economic consequences hereof during the year in review. Furthermore, due to cost considerations, Curaçao cannot confirm whether its electronic system will be developed. Curaçao anticipates that this process will be completed by the end of 2023. Therefore, the prior years' recommendation remains.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

328. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Curaçao's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Curaçao's implementation in this regard remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Conclusion on section A

329. Curaçao has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process except for identifying rulings within the scope of the transparency framework and under which category of rulings they fall (ToR I.A.1). Curaçao is recommended to finalise its information gathering process for identifying all past and future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as soon as possible.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

330. Curaçao has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Curaçao notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

331. Curaçao has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including being a jurisdiction participating in (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with two jurisdictions.²

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

332. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Curaçao's process for the completion and exchange of templates met all the ToR, except for the timely exchange of information on past and future rulings (ToR II.5.6). In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that, due to the Covid-19 pandemic, Curaçao experienced delays in its continued work on exchanging information on past and future rulings as soon as they were identified. Curaçao still needed to identify which of the approximately 3 500 rulings issued in previous years meet the conditions to be exchanged. Curaçao anticipated to complete this process by the end of March 2022. In addition, no exchanges have taken place for any of the rulings issued in the year of review. Therefore, Curaçao was recommended to continue its work to continue its efforts to ensure all information on past and future rulings is exchanged as soon as possible.

333. During the year in review, as noted above, Curaçao continued this work but was not able to finalise this process. Curaçao confirms that there were no rulings to be exchanged for the year in review and also anticipates to complete the exchange of information process for previous years' rulings by the end of 2023. Therefore, the prior year recommendation remains.

Conclusion on section B

334. Curaçao has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process except for completing exchanges of information on rulings in accordance with the timelines (ToR II.B.5 and II.B.6) and Curaçao is recommended to continue its efforts to ensure that all information on past and future rulings is exchanged as soon as possible.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

335. As no rulings were issued during the year in review, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

336. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Curaçao's information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes³ were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Curaçao's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
The information gathering process is still underway in Curaçao with respect to past and future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework and the classification of these rulings under each category.	Curaçao is recommended to finalise its information gathering process for identifying all past and future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.
Curaçao experienced delays in exchanging information on past and future rulings.	Curaçao is recommended to continue its efforts to ensure that all information on past and future rulings is exchanged as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Czech Republic

The Czech Republic has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for the timely exchange of information on rulings (ToR II.B.6). The Czech Republic receives one recommendation on this point for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2017-2019 peer review reports, the Czech Republic had received the same recommendation. As it has not been fully addressed, the recommendation remains in place.

Czech Republic can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Czech Republic issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	48
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	5
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	11
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	7
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	19
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	15
Future rulings in the year in review	25

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Czech Republic.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

337. The Czech Republic can legally issue the following two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles and (ii) permanent establishment rulings.

338. For the Czech Republic, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

339. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that the Czech Republic's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that the Czech Republic's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. The Czech Republic's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

340. The Czech Republic has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

341. The Czech Republic has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. The Czech Republic notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

342. The Czech Republic has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 93 jurisdictions.¹

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

343. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that the Czech Republic's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that the Czech Republic continued to apply the European Union (EU) timelines for the exchange of information on future rulings (EU Directive 2011/16/EU), i.e. exchanges of information on future rulings are carried out within three months after the end of the calendar half-year in which these rulings were issued, regardless of whether the exchange is transmitted to EU Member States or other jurisdictions. Despite the best efforts to meet the FHTP timelines (and to therefore exchange faster than the domestic legislation and EU Directive would require), during the year in review, the Czech Republic continued to experience some delays in the exchange of information on future rulings and as a consequence, some exchanges were performed later than three months after the tax ruling became available to the competent authority. As noted in the prior year's peer review report, this delay was also a result of the limited activities carried out by the Czech Tax Authorities due to the Covid-19 pandemic. The issue will be reviewed again in the subsequent year's peer review to monitor whether the Czech Republic meets the FHTP timelines despite the obligation to comply with the EU Directive.

344. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	21	4	Application of the EU DAC3 timelines and constraints due to the Covid-19 pandemic	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

Conclusion on section B

345. The Czech Republic has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process except for ensuring that the information to be exchanged is transmitted to the relevant jurisdictions in accordance with the agreed timelines. The Czech Republic is recommended to ensure that all information on future rulings is exchanged as soon as possible (ToR II.B.6).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

346. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	12	Austria, China (People's Republic of), Denmark, Hong Kong (China), Sweden, Switzerland
Permanent establishment rulings	13	Germany, Japan, Poland, Slovak Republic, Switzerland, United Kingdom
Total	25

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

347. Czech Republic does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
The Czech Republic experienced delays in the exchange of information on future rulings due to the application of the timelines set out in the EU Directive 2011/16/EU.	The Czech Republic is recommended to ensure that all information on future rulings is exchanged as soon as possible. The Czech Republic also received a recommendation on timely exchange of information on rulings in the 2017, 2018 and 2020 peer review reports.

Democratic Republic of the Congo

The Democratic Republic of the Congo did not provide a completed peer review questionnaire to the Secretariat. It is not known whether the Democratic Republic of the Congo has implemented the transparency framework in line with the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review). The Democratic Republic of the Congo receives two recommendations covering the information gathering process (ToR I.A) and exchange of information (ToR II.B) for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, the Democratic Republic of the Congo had received the same recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

It is not known which types of rulings the Democratic Republic of the Congo can legally issue within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, the Democratic Republic of the Congo did not issue any type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework in previous years. For the year in review, as well as for the prior year, is not known whether the Democratic Republic of the Congo issued any such rulings.

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

349. It is not known which types of rulings the Democratic Republic of the Congo can legally issue within the scope of the transparency framework.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

350. For the Democratic Republic of the Congo, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015.

351. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that the Democratic Republic of the Congo issued no past rulings in scope of the transparency framework. As such, this section is not assessed.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

352. For the Democratic Republic of the Congo, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

353. In the prior year's peer review report, the Democratic Republic of the Congo was recommended to put in place an information gathering process for future rulings as soon as possible.

354. During the year in review, as it is not known whether the Democratic Republic of the Congo has finalised its information gathering process, the recommendation remains in place.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

355. In the prior year's peer review report, the Democratic Republic of the Congo was recommended to have in place a review and supervision mechanism to ensure that all relevant information is captured adequately. As it is not known whether the Democratic Republic of the Congo has put in place a review and supervision mechanism under the transparency framework for the year in review, the recommendation remains in place.

Conclusion on section A

356. The Democratic Republic of the Congo is recommended to put in place an information gathering process, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

357. It is not known whether the Democratic Republic of the Congo has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously.

358. The Democratic Republic of the Congo is not a party to the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[11]) ("the Convention"). The Democratic Republic of the Congo is encouraged to continue its efforts to expand its international exchange of information instruments to be able to exchange information on rulings. It is noted, however, that jurisdictions are assessed on their compliance with the transparency framework in respect of the exchange of information network in effect for the year of the particular annual review.

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

359. In the prior year's peer review report, the Democratic Republic of the Congo is recommended to put in place a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible. It is not known whether the Democratic Republic of the Congo has already put in place such a process for the year in review.

360. As it is not known whether exchanges took place in the year of review, no data on the timeliness of exchanges can be reported.

Conclusion on section B

361. The Democratic Republic of the Congo is recommended to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings and to put in place a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

362. As it is not known whether information on rulings was exchanged by Congo for the year in review, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

363. The Democratic Republic of the Congo does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
It is not known whether the Democratic Republic of the Congo has put in place the necessary information and gathering process.	The Democratic Republic of the Congo is recommended to finalise its information gathering process, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2020 peer review report.
It is not known whether the Democratic Republic of the Congo has put in place an effective compulsory spontaneous exchange of information on the tax rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.	The Democratic Republic of the Congo is recommended to continue to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings and to continue its efforts to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2020 peer review report.

Denmark

Denmark has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Denmark can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Denmark issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	43
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	7
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	17
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	13
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	14
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	9
Future rulings in the year in review	19

Peer input was received from two jurisdictions in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Denmark. The input was positive, noting that information was complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

364. Denmark can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

365. For Denmark, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

366. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Denmark's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Denmark's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Denmark's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

367. Denmark has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

368. Denmark has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Denmark notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

369. Denmark has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States, (iii) the Nordic Convention on Assistance in Tax Matters and (iv) bilateral agreements in force with 71 jurisdictions.²

370. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	15	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

371. Denmark notes that the difference between the number of issued rulings and the number of exchanges of information is due to the fact that five rulings were issued at the end of 2021 and information was exchanged in March 2022. This will be taken into account in next year's peer review report. Denmark also notes that the above mentioned 15 exchanges relate to the remaining 14 issued rulings in 2021.

372. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Denmark's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Denmark's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

373. Denmark has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Denmark has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

374. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	0	N/A
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	0	N/A
Cross-border rulings providing for a unilateral downward adjustment to the taxpayer's taxable profits that is not directly reflected in the taxpayer's financial / commercial accounts	0	N/A
Permanent establishment rulings	13	Germany, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, United Kingdom
Related party conduit rulings	2	De minimis rule applies
Total	15

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

375. Denmark does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Dominican Republic

The Dominican Republic has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

The Dominican Republic can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, The Dominican Republic issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Future rulings in the period 1 March 2019 – 31 December 2019	23
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	57
Future rulings in the year in review	83

Peer input was received from two jurisdictions in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from The Dominican Republic. The input was positive, noting that information was complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

376. The Dominican Republic can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

377. For the Dominican Republic, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued prior to 1 March 2019. However, there is no obligation for the Dominican Republic to conduct spontaneous exchange information on past rulings. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 March 2019.

378. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that the Dominican Republic's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that the Dominican Republic's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. The Dominican Republic's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

379. The Dominican Republic has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

380. The Dominican Republic has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. The Dominican Republic notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

381. The Dominican Republic has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with three jurisdictions.²

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

382. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that the Dominican Republic experienced delays for the exchange of information on rulings, which for the previous year was also related to the fact that the relevant officials needed to telework because of the Covid-19 pandemic. It was determined that the Dominican Republic's process for the completion and exchange of templates met all the ToR, except for the timely exchange of information on rulings (ToR II.B).

383. During the year in review, the Dominican Republic confirms that information on all rulings issued in the year in review were exchanged in a timely manner. Therefore, the recommendation to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible can now be removed.

384. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	134	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

Conclusion on section B

385. The Dominican Republic has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. The Dominican Republic has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

386. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	0	N/A
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	134	Barbados, Canada, Costa Rica, Curaçao, France, Ireland, Luxembourg, Mexico, Netherlands, Panama, Saint Kitts and Nevis, Spain, Switzerland, Uruguay, United States
Cross-border rulings providing for a unilateral downward adjustment to the taxpayer's taxable profits that is not directly reflected in the taxpayer's financial / commercial accounts	0	N/A
Permanent establishment rulings	0	N/A
Related party conduit rulings	0	N/A
Total	134

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

387. The Dominican Republic does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement

Notes

¹ i) Border development and ii) Logistics centres. It should be noted that FHTP has not yet concluded if these regimes are in scope. If the FHTP decides that these regimes are out of scope for the FHTP, then exchange of information on rulings with respect to these regimes would no longer be required under the Action 5 transparency framework. However, until then, the Dominican Republic has committed to do the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings related to these regimes.

² Participating jurisdictions to the Convention are available here: www.oecd.org/tax/exchange-of-tax-information/convention-on-mutual-administrative-assistance-in-tax-matters.htm. The Dominican Republic also has bilateral agreements with Canada, Spain and United States.

Egypt

Egypt is taking steps to implement the legal basis for exchange of information under the transparency framework, and has commenced administrative preparations to ensure that information on rulings will be exchanged. Egypt has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for identifying all potential exchange jurisdictions (ToR I.A.2), having in place a review and supervision mechanism (ToR I.A.3) and having in place a process to ensure the timely exchange of information on rulings in the form required by the transparency framework (ToR II.B). Egypt receives two recommendations on these points for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2018 and 2019 peer review reports, Egypt had received the same two recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Egypt can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Egypt issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	31
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2018 – 31 December 2018	3
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	11
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	2
Future rulings in the year in review	1

As no exchanges took place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Egypt.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

388. Egypt can legally issue the following three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (ii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iii) related party conduit rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

389. For Egypt, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2016 but before 1 April 2018; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 January 2016, provided still in effect as at 1 January 2016.

390. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Egypt's undertakings to identify past rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions have met all the ToR, except for identifying all potential exchange jurisdictions for past rulings (ToR I.A.2.2). Therefore, Egypt was recommended to apply the "best efforts approach" to identify potential exchange jurisdictions for past rulings.

391. During the year in review, Egypt has not yet identified the potential exchange jurisdictions for all past rulings, and therefore the recommendation remains in place.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

392. For Egypt, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2018.

393. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was also noted that Egypt did not yet have a process in place for the identification of potential exchange jurisdictions for future rulings other than APAs. Therefore, it was determined that Egypt's undertakings to identify future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions have met all the ToR, except for identifying all potential exchange jurisdictions for future rulings other than APAs (ToR I.A.2.1). Egypt was recommended to ensure that all potential exchange jurisdictions are identified swiftly for all future rulings other than APAs.

394. During the year in review, Egypt has not yet put in place a process to identify the potential exchange jurisdictions for all future rulings other than APAs, and therefore the recommendation remains in place.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

395. Egypt does not yet have in place a review and supervision mechanism for the identification of rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions (ToR I.A.3), and therefore the recommendation remains in place.

396. As noted in the prior years' peer review reports, Egypt envisages that supervision on the identification of rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions will take place by the managers of the relevant departments. Egypt also intends to issue internal guidance for staff on the identification process.

Conclusion on section A

397. Egypt has met the ToR for the information gathering process except for identifying all potential exchange jurisdictions for past and future rulings (ToR I.A.2) and having in place a review and supervision mechanism (ToR I.A.3). Egypt is recommended to continue its efforts to identify all potential exchange jurisdictions for both past and future rulings and to implement a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

398. Egypt has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Egypt notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

399. Egypt has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including bilateral agreements in force with 58 jurisdictions.¹ Egypt is not a party to the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”). Egypt is encouraged to continue its efforts to expand its international exchange of information instruments to be able to exchange information on tax rulings. Egypt notes that it is planning to become a party to the Convention in the near future. It is noted, however, that jurisdictions are assessed on their compliance with the transparency framework in respect of the exchange of information network in effect for the year of the particular annual review.

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

400. In the prior years’ peer review reports, it was determined that Egypt did not have a process for the completion and exchange of templates. Therefore, Egypt was recommended to develop a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework (ToR II.B). As no action has been undertaken on this aspect during the year in review, the recommendation remains in place.

401. During the year in review, no exchanges took place and therefore no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

Conclusion on section B

402. Egypt has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information. Egypt is recommended to swiftly implement its process to complete the templates on relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

403. As there was no information on rulings exchanged by Egypt for the year in review, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

404. Egypt does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Egypt has not yet identified all potential exchange jurisdictions for both past and future rulings and does not have a review and supervision mechanism in place to ensure that all relevant information on the identification of rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions is captured adequately.	Egypt is recommended to continue its efforts to identify all potential exchange jurisdictions for both past and future rulings and to implement a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2018, 2019 and 2020 review reports.
Egypt does not have in place a process to ensure the timely exchange of information on rulings in the form required by the transparency framework.	Egypt is recommended to swiftly implement its process to complete the templates on relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Estonia

Estonia has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Estonia can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Estonia issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	20
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	8
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	11
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	9
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	9
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	7
Future rulings in the year in review	3

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Estonia.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

405. Estonia can legally issue the following two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) permanent establishment rulings and (ii) related party conduit rulings.

406. For Estonia, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

407. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Estonia's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Estonia's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Estonia's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

408. Estonia has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

409. Estonia has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Estonia notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

410. Estonia has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 60 jurisdictions.¹

411. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	3	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

412. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Estonia's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required from Estonia. Estonia's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

413. Estonia has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Estonia has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

414. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Permanent establishment rulings	0	N/A
Related party conduit rulings	De minimis rule applies	N/A
De minimis rule	3	N/A
Total	3

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

415. Estonia does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Eswatini

Eswatini is taking steps to implement the aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the transparency framework and to commence administrative preparations to ensure that it establishes an information gathering process (ToR I.A) and that information on rulings will be identified and exchanged in a timely manner (ToR II.B). Eswatini receives two recommendations on these points for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, Eswatini had received the same two recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Eswatini can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Eswatini issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Eswatini.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

416. Eswatini can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) rulings on preferential regimes;¹ (ii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings. According to the Income Tax Order, the Commissioner General (CG) could issue private rulings regarding the application of the Order to a transaction proposed by the taxpayer.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

417. For Eswatini, past rulings are any tax rulings issued prior to 1 March 2020. However, there is no obligation for Eswatini to conduct spontaneous exchange information on past rulings.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

418. For Eswatini, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 March 2020.

419. No future rulings were issued by Eswatini during the year in review. During the year in review, the CG only issued rulings advising a taxpayer on a particular provision or administrative practice not falling in any of the four categories mentioned above. However, nothing would prevent the CG to issue rulings in one of the above mentioned categories in scope of the transparency framework.

420. Eswatini does not yet have processes in place to ensure the identification of all relevant rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions but is currently taking steps to ensure the implementation of the obligations relating to the transparency framework.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

421. Eswatini does not yet have a review and supervision mechanism under the transparency framework but is currently taking steps to ensure the implementation of the obligations relating to the transparency framework.

Conclusion on section A

422. Eswatini is currently taking steps to ensure the identification of all relevant rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions as well as to have a review and supervision mechanism under the transparency framework.

423. Eswatini is recommended to put in place its information gathering process for identifying all relevant rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

424. Eswatini has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Eswatini notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

425. Eswatini has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010

Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”), (ii) bilateral agreements in force with seven jurisdictions and (iii) tax information exchange agreements in force with two jurisdictions.²

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

426. Eswatini does not yet have a process in place for the completion and exchange of information on rulings in accordance with the form and timelines required by the transparency framework but is currently taking steps to ensure the implementation of the obligations relating to the transparency framework.

427. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

Conclusion on section B

428. Eswatini has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information. Eswatini has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process except for having a process in place for the completion and exchange of information on rulings. Eswatini is recommended to develop a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

429. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

430. Eswatini does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Eswatini is currently taking steps to ensure the identification of all relevant rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions as well as to have a review and supervision mechanism under the transparency framework.	Eswatini is recommended to put in place its information gathering process for identifying all relevant rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the prior year's peer review report.

Faroe Islands

The Faroe Islands is taking steps to implement the aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the transparency framework and to commence administrative preparations to ensure that it establishes an information gathering process (ToR I.A) and that information on rulings will be identified and exchanged in a timely manner (ToR II.B). The Faroe Islands receives two recommendations on these points for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2019 peer review report, the Faroe Islands had received the same two recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

The Faroe Islands can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, The Faroe Islands issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	0
Future rulings in the period 1 September 2019 – 31 December 2019	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	1
Future rulings in the year in review	0

As no exchanges took place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from The Faroe Islands.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

431. The Faroe Islands can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes¹ and (ii) permanent establishment rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

432. For the Faroe Islands, past rulings are any tax rulings issued prior to 1 September 2019.

433. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that there is no obligation for the Faroe Islands to conduct spontaneous exchange information on past rulings.

434. During the year in review, the Faroe Islands did not implement steps to identify past rulings or to identify potential exchange jurisdictions, and therefore the recommendation remains in place.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

435. For the Faroe Islands, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 September 2019.

436. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that the Faroe Islands had no processes in place for the record keeping of rulings for the purposes of the transparency framework. Therefore, the Faroe Islands was recommended to put in place an effective information gathering process to identify all relevant future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions as soon as possible. The Faroe Islands intended to implement guidelines and practices to make sure the necessary information to meet the requirements of the transparency framework is required in all cases.

437. During the year in review, the Faroe Islands identified one future ruling, but it did not implement steps to identify past rulings or to identify potential exchange jurisdictions, and therefore the recommendation remains in place.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

438. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that the Faroe Islands did not yet have a review and supervision mechanism under the transparency framework. During the year in review, the Faroe Islands did not implement such a review and supervision mechanism, and therefore the recommendation remains in place.

Conclusion on section A

439. The Faroe Islands is recommended to put in place an effective information gathering process to identify all relevant future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions and to implement a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

440. The Faroe Islands has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. The Faroe Islands notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

441. The Faroe Islands has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including being a participating jurisdiction in (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”), (ii) the Nordic Convention on Assistance in Tax Matters and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with four jurisdictions.²

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

442. In the prior year’s peer review report, it was determined that the Faroe Islands is still developing a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions. Therefore, the Faroe Islands was recommended to develop a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework going forward.

443. During the year in review, the Faroe Islands did not implement such a process, and therefore the recommendation remains in place.

444. As no exchanges took place in the year of review, no data on the timeliness of exchanges can be reported.

Conclusion on section B

445. The Faroe Islands is recommended to develop a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework going forward (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

446. As there was no information on rulings exchanged by the Faroe Islands for the year in review, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

447. The Faroe Islands does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
The Faroe Islands does not yet have its necessary information and gathering process in place.	The Faroe Islands is recommended to put in place an effective information gathering process to identify all relevant future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions and to implement a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible. Finland

Finland has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Finland can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Finland issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	42
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	13
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	19
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	8
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	32
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	27
Future rulings in the year in review	28

Peer input was received from four jurisdictions in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Finland. The input was generally positive, noting that overall information was complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

448. Finland can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings.

449. For Finland, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

450. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Finland's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Finland's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Finland's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

451. Finland has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

452. Finland has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Finland notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

453. Finland has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 89 jurisdictions.²

454. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	167	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

455. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Finland's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Finland's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

456. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	0	N/A
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	159	Argentina, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, Chile, China (People's Republic of), Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, France, Germany, Ghana, Guernsey, Hong Kong (China), Hungary, India, Indonesia, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Kazakhstan, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malaysia, Malta, Mexico, Mongolia, Morocco, Netherlands, New Zealand, North Macedonia, Norway, Panama, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Qatar, Romania, Russia, Saudi Arabia, Serbia, Singapore, Slovak Republic, South Africa, South Korea, Spain, Sweden, Thailand, Türkiye, Ukraine, United Arab Emirates, United Kingdom, United States, Vietnam, Zambia

France

France has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for identifying and exchanging information on new entrants to the grandfathered IP regime (ToR I.A.1.3). France receives one recommendation on this point for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2016-2019 peer review reports, France had received the same recommendation. As it has not fully been addressed, the recommendation remains partially in place.

France can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, France issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	45
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	4
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	6

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from France.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

458. France can legally issue the following three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; and (iii) permanent establishment rulings.

460. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that France's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that France's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. France's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

461. France has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

462. France has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. France notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

463. France has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 125 jurisdictions.²

465. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that France's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. France's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

466. France has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. France has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

467. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	0	N/A
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	6	Austria, China (People's Republic of), Germany, Hong Kong (China), Sweden

IP regimes: total exchanges on taxpayers benefitting from the third category of IP assets, new entrants benefitting from grandfathered IP regimes; and taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption	0	N/A
Total	16

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

468. France offers an intellectual property regime (IP regime)³ that is subject to the transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015_[2]). This regime was amended with effect from 1 January 2019 and is compliant with the nexus approach. It states that the identification of the benefitting taxpayers will occur as follows:

- New entrants benefitting from the grandfathered IP regime: With respect to the previous form of the regime that existed until 31 December 2018, France should have information available and exchanged on new entrants after the relevant date from which enhanced transparency obligations apply. France has not identified information on new entrants to the previous IP regime, and as such has not exchanged information on these taxpayers. Therefore, France is recommended to identify and exchange information on all new entrants to the IP regime. France notes that it has identified those taxpayers that were owned for at least 25% by foreign residents among all new entrants between 2015 and 2018. France has exchanged this information during the first half of 2022. This will be taken into account during next year's peer review, and the previous year's recommendation is therefore retained.
- Third category of IP assets: The previous form of the regime provided benefits to income from patentable inventions, which appear to be a type of the "third category of IP asset" described in paragraph 37 of the Action 5 report (OECD, 2015_[2]). France has not implemented all of the requirements associated with this category of IP assets, thus the transparency requirements described in paragraph 37 would still apply to this case. France did not identify taxpayers benefitting from the third category of IP assets, and as such, has not exchanged information on these taxpayers. This recommendation was included in the 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports. The previous IP regime existed until 31 December 2018 and France confirms that the ordinary statute of limitations has expired, and that the identification of the third category of IP assets would not fall under exceptional cases for a longer statute of limitations period. Based on this, the effect of the recommendation became obsolete, and it is therefore removed.

In addition, the amended IP regime will allow benefits for the third category of IP assets.⁴ Taxpayers benefiting from the regime have to provide a list of relevant assets in their tax return. Based on the tax return, France can identify the taxpayers benefiting from the third category of IP assets.

- Taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption: The amended IP regime allows for the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption. Taxpayers opting to do so must obtain a ruling from the tax administration and are required to list the specific assets for which the presumption was rebutted in their tax return. France confirms that no taxpayer elected to treat the nexus approach as a rebuttable presumption.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
France did not identify or exchange information on new entrants to the IP regime.	France is recommended to identify and exchange information on all new entrants to the IP regime. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Gabon

Gabon is taking steps to implement the aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the transparency framework and to commence administrative preparations to ensure that it establishes an information gathering process (ToR I.A) and that information on rulings will be identified and exchanged in a timely manner (ToR II.B). Gabon receives two recommendations on these points for the calendar year 2021 (year in review).

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2018 and 2019 peer review reports, Gabon had received the same two recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Gabon can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Gabon issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Gabon.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

469. Gabon can legally issue the following two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ and (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

470. For Gabon, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2016 but before 1 April 2018; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 January 2016, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2016. Gabon issued no past rulings within the scope of the transparency framework. As such, there was no need to identify potential exchange jurisdictions.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

471. For Gabon, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2018.

472. In the prior years' peer review reports, Gabon indicated that there were no processes in place for the record keeping of rulings for the purposes of the transparency framework. It was noted that Gabon intended to implement guidelines and practices to make sure the necessary information to meet the requirements of the transparency framework is required in all cases. Therefore, Gabon was recommended to finalise its information gathering process for identifying all relevant rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions, as soon as possible.

473. During the year in review, no additional steps to finalise its information gathering process were taken, and therefore the prior years' recommendation remains in place.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

474. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Gabon did not yet have a review and supervision mechanism under the transparency framework. Therefore, Gabon was recommended to put in place a review and supervision mechanism as soon as possible. Gabon was in the process of considering the implementation of a revision and supervision mechanism for ensuring implementation of the transparency framework. During the year in review, no additional steps were taken, and therefore the prior year recommendation remains.

Conclusion on section A

475. Gabon is recommended to finalise its information gathering process for identifying all relevant rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

476. Gabon has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Gabon notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

477. Gabon has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including bilateral agreements in force with six jurisdictions.² Gabon signed the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”) in July 2014, but Gabon has not yet ratified the Convention. Gabon is encouraged to continue its efforts to ratify the Convention and expand its international exchange of information instruments to be able to exchange information on rulings. It is noted, however, that jurisdictions are assessed on their compliance with the transparency framework in respect of the exchange of information network in effect for the year of the particular annual review.

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

478. In the prior years’ peer review reports, it was determined that Gabon was developing a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions.

479. During the year in review, no additional steps were taken, and therefore the prior year recommendation remains.

480. As no exchanges were required to take place for the year in review, no data on the timeliness of exchanges can be reported.

Conclusion on section B

481. Gabon has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information. Gabon is recommended to continue its efforts to put in place a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

482. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

483. Gabon does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Gabon has not finalised the steps to have in place its necessary information gathering process, with a review and supervision mechanism.	Gabon is recommended to finalise its information gathering process for identifying all relevant rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Georgia

Georgia has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Georgia can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Georgia issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Georgia.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

484. Georgia can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings.

485. For Georgia, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2016 but before 1 April 2018; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 January 2016, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2016. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2018.

486. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Georgia's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Georgia's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Georgia's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

487. Georgia has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

488. Georgia has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Georgia notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

489. Georgia has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 58 jurisdictions.²

490. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

491. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Georgia's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Georgia's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

492. Georgia has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

493. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

494. Georgia does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Germany

Germany has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Germany can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Germany issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	30
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	7
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	10
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	10
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	8
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	13
Future rulings in the year in review	10

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Germany.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

495. Germany can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

496. For Germany, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

497. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Germany's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Germany's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Germany's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

498. Germany has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

499. Germany has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Germany notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

500. Germany has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 61 jurisdictions.²

501. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	8	2	See below	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	1	ongoing	ongoing

502. In the prior year's peer review report, Germany experienced two delays due to an addition of information and objections to the exchange by the domestic taxpayer, for which local tax authorities held hearings. Germany confirmed that this goes counter to their legal framework and therefore it was not expected to be recurring issue. During the year in review, Germany again experienced two delays. Germany explains that this was because the federal tax authority needed to request additional information from local tax authorities, and confirms it is not a recurring issue. Considering the small number of exchanges that were delayed, no recommendation is made at this stage, and this will be further monitored in next year's peer review.

503. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Germany's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Germany's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

504. Germany has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Germany has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

505. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	4	De minimis rule applies
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	3	De minimis rule applies
Cross-border rulings providing for a unilateral downward adjustment to the taxpayer's taxable profits that is not directly reflected in the taxpayer's financial / commercial accounts	0	N/A
Permanent establishment rulings	3	De minimis rule applies
Related party conduit rulings	0	N/A
Total	10

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

506. Germany does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Gibraltar

Gibraltar has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review) and no recommendations are made.

Gibraltar can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Gibraltar issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no rulings were issued, no exchanges were required to take place, and no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Gibraltar.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

507. Gibraltar can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (ii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings.

508. For Gibraltar, past rulings are any tax rulings issued prior to 1 March 2020. However, there is no obligation for Gibraltar to conduct spontaneous exchange information on past rulings. For Gibraltar, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 March 2020.

509. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Gibraltar's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Gibraltar's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Gibraltar's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

510. Gibraltar has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

511. Gibraltar has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Gibraltar notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

512. Gibraltar has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including being a jurisdiction participating in (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), following the territorial extension of this convention to Gibraltar by the United Kingdom, (ii) a bilateral agreement in force with one jurisdiction and (iii) tax information exchange agreements in force with four jurisdictions.¹

513. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

514. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Gibraltar's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no action was required. Gibraltar's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

515. Gibraltar has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Gibraltar has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

516. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

517. Gibraltar does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Greece

Greece has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Greece can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Greece issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	1
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	2

Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	1
Future rulings in the year in review	0

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Greece.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

518. Greece can legally issue one type of ruling within the scope of the transparency framework: cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles.

519. For Greece, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered

525. During the year in review, Greece transmitted one exchange of information relating to a ruling issued in 2020. Greece confirms that the exchange was done in a timely manner.

526. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Greece's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Greece's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

527. Greece has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Greece has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Grenada

Grenada is taking steps to implement the aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the transparency framework and to commence administrative preparations to ensure that it establishes an information gathering process (ToR I.A) and that information on rulings will be identified and exchanged in a timely manner (ToR II.B). Grenada receives two recommendations on these points for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2019 peer review report, Grenada had received the same two recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Grenada can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Grenada issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Grenada.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

530. Grenada can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes; (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

531. For Grenada, past rulings are any tax rulings issued prior to 1 March 2019. However, there is no obligation for Grenada to conduct spontaneous exchange information on past rulings.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

532. For Grenada, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 March 2019.

533. No rulings were issued by Grenada during the period in review. Grenada indicates that there are not yet processes in place to ensure the implementation of the obligations relating to the transparency framework such as the record keeping of rulings. It is noted that Grenada intends to implement appropriate processes to ensure the necessary information to meet the requirements of the transparency framework is required in all cases.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

534. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Grenada did not yet have a review and supervision mechanism for past rulings under the transparency framework. Therefore, Grenada was recommended to put in place a review and supervision mechanism as soon as possible. Grenada is discussing the implementation of a revision and supervision mechanism for ensuring implementation of the transparency framework.

Conclusion on section A

535. Grenada is recommended to finalise its information gathering process for identifying all past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

536. Grenada has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Grenada notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

537. Grenada has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 12 jurisdictions.¹

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

538. Grenada is still developing a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions.

539. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

Conclusion on section B

540. Grenada is recommended to continue its efforts to put in place a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

541. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

542. Grenada does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Grenada has not put in place the necessary information gathering process.	Grenada is recommended to finalise its information gathering process for identifying all future rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.
Grenada does not have a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions.	Grenada is recommended to develop a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Guernsey

Guernsey has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Guernsey can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Guernsey issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	5
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2017 – 31 December 2017	3
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	2
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	0
Future rulings in the year in review	0

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Guernsey.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

543. Guernsey can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (ii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings.

544. For Guernsey, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

545. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Guernsey's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Guernsey's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Guernsey's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

546. Guernsey has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

547. Guernsey has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Guernsey notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

548. Guernsey has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including being a jurisdiction participating in (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 19 jurisdictions.¹

549. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

550. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Guernsey's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Guernsey's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

551. Guernsey has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Guernsey has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

552. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

553. Guernsey does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Hong Kong (China)

Hong Kong (China) (“Hong Kong”) has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Hong Kong can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Hong Kong issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	1
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2017 – 31 December 2017	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	2
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	1
Future rulings in the year in review	0

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Hong Kong.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

554. Hong Kong can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings.

555. For Hong Kong, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

556. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Hong Kong's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Hong Kong's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Hong Kong's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

557. Hong Kong has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

558. Hong Kong has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Hong Kong notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

559. Hong Kong has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including being a jurisdiction participating in (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 39 jurisdictions.²

560. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

561. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Hong Kong's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Hong Kong's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

562. Hong Kong has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Hong Kong has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Hungary

Hungary has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for applying the “best efforts approach” to identify potential exchange jurisdictions for all past rulings (ToR I.A.2.2). Hungary receives one recommendation on this point for the year in review.

In the prior year’s peer review report, as well as in the 2016-2019 peer review reports, Hungary had received two recommendations. Hungary has resolved one of these issues. The other recommendation has not been addressed and remains in place.

Hungary can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Hungary issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	77
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	4
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	9
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	11
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	21
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	18
Future rulings in the year in review	27

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Hungary.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

565. Hungary can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

566. For Hungary, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014.

567. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Hungary had not used the "best efforts approach" to identify potential exchange jurisdictions, meaning that Hungary had only identified potential exchange jurisdictions for around half of the past ATRs (advance tax rulings), although it had identified most potential exchange jurisdictions for APAs but not necessarily the ultimate parent company jurisdiction. Therefore, Hungary was recommended to continue to apply the "best efforts approach" to identify potential exchange jurisdictions for all past rulings.

568. During the year in review, Hungary has not been able to take additional steps. As such, the recommendation remains.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

569. For Hungary, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

570. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Hungary's undertakings to identify future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions was sufficient to meet the minimum standard.

571. Hungary notes that from 1 October 2021, all APAs are processed by the Ministry of Finance (instead of the National Tax and Customs Administration), which is also the responsible body for issuing other rulings in scope of the transparency framework. Taxpayers applying for an APA now have to complete a specific application form, which is available on the website of the Ministry of Finance and requires the taxpayer to provide information on the jurisdictions of its immediate parent, ultimate parent, and the related parties of the transaction. If the taxpayer does not provide sufficient information, then the tax administration can request the additional information.

572. Hungary's implementation in this regard remains continues to meet the minimum standard.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

573. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Hungary's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Hungary's implementation in this regard remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Conclusion on section A

574. Hungary has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process except for applying the "best efforts approach" for past rulings (ToR I.A.2.2) and Hungary is recommended to continue to apply the "best efforts approach" to identify potential exchange jurisdictions for all past rulings.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

575. Hungary has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Hungary notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

576. Hungary has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 83 jurisdictions.²

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

577. In the prior years’ peer review reports, it was determined that Hungary’s process for the completion and exchange of templates met all the ToR, except for the timely exchange of information on future rulings. Therefore, Hungary was recommended to ensure that all information on future rulings is exchanged as soon as possible. During the year in review, there were no more delayed exchanges of future rulings, and therefore, the recommendation is removed.

578. In addition, Hungary notes that as the Ministry of Finance is now responsible for APAs, it is also responsible for filling out the table with necessary information for the exchange of information. The table is sent to the Central Liaison Office which is the competent authority responsible for international exchanges. The officer in charge of the exchange of rulings and APAs reviews the information, translates the parts that might still require translation, in case of questions consults with the sending unit, and finally imports the information into the template contained in Annex C of the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]). Before sending, the template is reviewed by the head of the Central Liaison Office.

579. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	41	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

Conclusion on section B

580. Hungary has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Hungary has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

581. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	0	N/A
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	12	Austria, Croatia, Ireland, Netherlands, Oman, Romania, Singapore, Slovak Republic, Spain, United States
Permanent establishment rulings	29	Canada, Czech Republic, Hong Kong (China), Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Singapore, United Kingdom, United States, Uruguay
Related party conduit rulings	0	N/A
IP regimes: total exchanges on taxpayers benefitting from the third category of IP assets, new entrants benefitting from grandfathered IP regimes; and taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption	0	N/A
Total	41

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

582. Hungary offers an intellectual property regime (IP regime)³ that is subject to the transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015_[2]). It states that the identification of the benefitting taxpayers will occur as follows:

- New entrants benefitting from the grandfathered IP regime: Taxpayers that are new entrants to the IP regime can be identified in the tax return and necessary information for the exchanges will then be gathered during a tax audit. For the year in review, Hungary does not report any exchanges resulting from identifications of new entrants. However, as Hungary has a process in place for the identification of new entrants to the grandfathered IP regime, the previous year's recommendation can be removed.
- Third category of IP assets: not applicable as the regime does not allow the third category of IP assets to qualify for the benefits.
- Taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption: not applicable as the regime does not allow the nexus ratio to be treated as a rebuttable presumption.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Hungary did not yet apply the "best efforts approach" to identify potential exchange jurisdictions for all past rulings.	Hungary is recommended to continue to apply the "best efforts approach" to identify potential exchange jurisdictions for all past rulings. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Iceland

Iceland has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Iceland can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Iceland issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	1
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	0
Future rulings in the year in review	0

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Iceland.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

583. Iceland can legally issue the following two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) permanent establishment rulings and (ii) related party conduit rulings.

584. For Iceland, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

585. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Iceland's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Iceland's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Iceland's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

586. Iceland has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

587. Iceland has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Iceland notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

588. Iceland has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Nordic Convention on Assistance in Tax Matters and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 40 jurisdictions.¹

589. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

590. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Iceland's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Iceland's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

591. Iceland has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Iceland has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

592. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

593. Iceland does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

India

India has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for the timely exchange of information on future rulings (ToR II.B.6.2). India receives one recommendation on this point for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2017-2019 peer review reports, India had received the same recommendation. During the year in review, a number of exchanges remained delayed, and therefore the recommendation remains in place.

India can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, India issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	69
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	55
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	73
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	44
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	137
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	28
Future rulings in the year in review	37

Peer input was received from six jurisdictions in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from India. The input was generally positive, noting that overall information was complete, in a correct format and almost all received in a timely manner. However, one peer indicated that exchanges on rulings were not timely.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

594. India can legally issue the following two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; and (ii) permanent establishment rulings.

595. For India, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

596. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that India's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that India's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. India's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

597. India has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

598. India has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. India notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

599. India has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation (SAARC) Agreement and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 96 jurisdictions.¹

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

600. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that India's process for the completion and exchange of templates met all the ToR, except for ensuring that information on future APA rulings is exchanged as soon as possible (ToR II.B.6). Therefore, India was recommended to ensure the timely exchange of information on future APA rulings. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required.

601. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	37	206	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

602. During the year in review, India continued to encounter delays with respect to the exchange of information on future APAs. This was due to the fact that India had to use the “best efforts approach” to identify potential exchange jurisdictions for APAs filed before 16 June 2017. In addition, India notes that it faced delays as a consequence of the Covid-19 pandemic. Therefore, India is still recommended to continue to ensure the timely exchange of information on future APA rulings (ToR II.B.6).

Conclusion on section B

603. India has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process except for ensuring that information on future APA rulings is exchanged as soon as possible (ToR II.B.6). India is recommended to continue to ensure the timely exchange of information on future APA rulings.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

604. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	242	Argentina, Australia, Austria, Azerbaijan, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Chile, China (People’s Republic of), Colombia, Costa Rica, Croatia, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Guatemala, Guernsey, Hong Kong (China), Hungary, Indonesia, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Jamaica, Japan, Jersey, Korea, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malaysia, Mexico, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Pakistan, Panama, Poland, Portugal, Russia, Singapore, Slovak Republic, Slovenia, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Türkiye, Ukraine, United Kingdom, United States
Permanent establishment rulings	1	De minimis rule applies
Total	243

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

605. In the prior years’ peer review reports, it was determined that the India’s information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes² were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. India’s implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
India experienced delays in the exchange of information on future APAs.	India is recommended to continue its efforts to ensure that all information on future APAs is exchanged as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Indonesia

Indonesia has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Indonesia can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Indonesia issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	0
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	1
Future rulings in the year in review	2

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Indonesia.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

606. Indonesia can legally issue one type of ruling within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles.

607. For Indonesia, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

608. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Indonesia's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Indonesia's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Indonesia's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

609. Indonesia has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

610. Indonesia has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Indonesia notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

611. Indonesia has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 69 jurisdictions.¹

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

612. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Indonesia's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. However, the rulings issued during the year in review were not exchanged in a timely manner due to delays in the transmission to the competent authority for exchange of information. These delays are due to remote working as a consequence of the Covid-19 pandemic and personnel changes within the MAP/APA unit. The newly appointed staff in the MAP/APA unit were not fully aware of the obligation to exchange information on unilateral APAs in a timely manner. Indonesia notes that once these delays were identified, the EOI unit notified this issue to the Competent Authority. As a result, the Competent Authority immediately issued formal instructions on the exchange obligations to the head of MAP/APA unit and exchanges have taken place early 2022. Because actions have been undertaken, this is a non-recurring issue, and no recommendation is made.

613. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	0	8	Late transmission to the Competent Authority by the authority issuing the rulings.	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

Conclusion on section B

614. Indonesia has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Indonesia has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process, except for transmitting information on rulings to the competent authority without undue delay (ToR II.B.5).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

615. As there was no information on rulings exchanged by Indonesia for the year in review, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

616. Indonesia does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement

Ireland

Ireland has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Ireland can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Ireland issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	29
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	2
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	39
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	5
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	4
Future rulings in the year in review	2

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Ireland.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

617. Ireland can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; and (iii) permanent establishment rulings.

618. For Ireland, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

619. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Ireland's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Ireland's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Ireland's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

620. Ireland has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

621. Ireland has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Ireland notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

622. Ireland has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 73 jurisdictions.²

623. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	2	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

624. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Ireland's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Ireland's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

625. Ireland has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Ireland has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

626. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	De minimis rule applies	N/A
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	0	N/A

Isle of Man

The Isle of Man has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

The Isle of Man can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, the Isle of Man issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	2
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2017 – 31 December 2017	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	0
Future rulings in the year in review	1

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from the Isle of Man.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

628. The Isle of Man can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments and (ii) permanent establishment rulings.

629. For the Isle of Man, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

630. Israel

Israel has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

In the prior year's peer review report, Israel had received two recommendations regarding the identification of future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework (ToR I.A.1.2) and the mandatory fields of information required in the template contained in Annex C of the 2015 Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]). Israel has resolved these issues and therefore the recommendations are now removed.

Israel can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Israel issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	79
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	5
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	3
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	15
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	30
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	15
Future rulings in the year in review	47

Peer input was received from two jurisdictions in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Israel. The input was generally positive, noting that overall information was complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

639. Israel can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

640. For Israel, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014.

641. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Israel's undertakings to identify past rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Israel's undertakings in this regard remain unchanged, and therefore continue to meet the minimum standard.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

642. For Israel, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

643. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Israel's undertakings to identify future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions have met all the ToR, identifying all future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework. The reason for this was that Israel had identified additional future rulings issued in the prior year that were not otherwise identified in the prior year. Therefore, Israel was recommended to strengthen its information gathering process identifying all future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

644. During the year in review, no additional rulings from prior years have been identified, and Israel confirms that the identification of rulings issued in prior years is now complete. Therefore, the recommendation is now removed.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

645. In the prior year's peer review report, Israel was recommended to strengthen its review and supervision mechanism to ensure that the information gathering process is working effectively. This was part of the efforts to strengthen the information gathering process, as a consequence of the additional identified rulings. As this issue has now been resolved, the recommendation is removed.

Conclusion on section A

646. Israel has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

647. Israel has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Israel notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

648. Israel has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”) and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 55 jurisdictions.²

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

649. In the prior years’ peer review reports, it was determined that Israel’s process for the completion and exchange of templates met all the ToR, except for ensuring that each of the mandatory fields of information required in the template contained in Annex C of the 2015 Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]), especially with regard to the summary section, are present in the information exchanged (ToR II.B.3). Therefore, Israel was recommended to ensure that it duly completes each of the mandatory fields of information required in the Annex C template. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required.

650. During the prior year, regarding the exchanges of information on rulings received from Israel, peer input indicated that the summary section of the template was not always sufficiently informative and detailed. Israel took note of these remarks and indicates that the EOI department manager instructs the departments issuing the rulings about the necessity to complete the summary section of the Annex C template in line with the internal FHTP suggested guidance. In addition, data is presented to the EOI department manager during weekly department meetings. Israel confirms that this process was fully in place during the year in review. As this issue has been resolved, the recommendation is now removed.

651. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	180	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

Conclusion on section B

652. Israel has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Israel has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

653. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	180	Australia, Austria, Belarus, Belgium, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, China (People’s Republic of), Cyprus, Denmark, France, Germany, Gibraltar, Hong Kong (China), India, Italy,

		Ireland, Japan, Korea, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Mexico, Netherlands, New Zealand, Romania, Russia, Singapore, South Africa, Spain, Switzerland, Türkiye, United Kingdom, United States
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	0	N/A
Cross-border rulings providing for a unilateral downward adjustment to the taxpayer's taxable profits that is not directly reflected in the taxpayer's financial / commercial accounts	0	N/A
Permanent establishment rulings	0	N/A
Related party conduit rulings	0	N/A
IP regimes: total exchanges on taxpayers benefitting from the third category of IP assets, new entrants benefitting from grandfathered IP regimes; and taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption	0	N/A
Total	180

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

654. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Israel's information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes³ were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Israel's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Italy

Italy has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Italy can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Italy issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	58
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	39
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	123
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	308
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	206
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	224
Future rulings in the year in review	273

Peer input was received from seven jurisdictions in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Italy. The input was generally positive, noting that overall information was complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

655. Italy can legally issue the following three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; and (iii) permanent establishment rulings.

656. For Italy, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

657. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Italy's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Italy's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Italy's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

658. Italy has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

659. Italy has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Italy notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

660. Italy has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 104 jurisdictions.²

661. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	946	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	8	45 days	1

662. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that the average response time to follow up requests was 105 days and had suffered delays due to the effects of the lockdown during the first quarter of 2020. Italy confirmed that towards the end of 2020 replies were provided within 40 days. Therefore, this was not expected to be a recurring problem, and no recommendation was given. During the year in review, the average time to provide a response confirms that this was not a recurring problem, although one request was yet not answered. Due to the peculiarities of the case, the collection of the information is still ongoing. The requesting Competent Authority was updated on the relevant status.

663. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Italy's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Italy's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

664. Italy has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Italy has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

665. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	830	Albania, Argentina, Aruba, Australia, Belgium, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, Chile, China (People's Republic of), Colombia, Croatia, Czech Republic, Denmark, Egypt, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hong Kong (China), Hungary, India, Indonesia, Ireland, Israel, Japan, Kazakhstan, Korea, Latvia, Luxembourg, Macau (China), Malaysia, Malta, Mexico, Morocco, Monaco, Norway, Netherlands, New Zealand, Panama, Poland, Portugal, Qatar, Romania, Russia, Saudi Arabia, Serbia, Singapore, Slovak Republic, Slovenia, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Thailand, Tunisia, Türkiye, Ukraine, United Kingdom, United States, Uruguay, Viet Nam
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	110	Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Croatia, Czech Republic, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hong Kong (China), Hungary, India, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Mexico, Netherlands, Norway, Panama, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovak Republic, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Singapore, Switzerland, Türkiye, United Kingdom, United States
Permanent establishment rulings	6	Austria, Kazakhstan, Monaco, Netherlands, Switzerland, United States
IP regimes: total exchanges on taxpayers benefitting from the third category of IP assets, new entrants benefitting from grandfathered IP regimes; and taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption	0	N/A
Total	946

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

666. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Italy's information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes³ were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Italy's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Jamaica

Jamaica has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Jamaica can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Jamaica issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Jamaica.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

667. Jamaica can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

668. For Jamaica, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

669. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Jamaica's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In the prior year's peer review report, it was also noted that Jamaica was preparing a more formal procedure to issue and review rulings for the purposes of the transparency framework, including guidelines to specify which information must be included in rulings applications. During the year in review, there have been no further developments. In addition, it was determined that Jamaica's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Jamaica's implementation in this regard remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

670. Jamaica has met all of the ToR for the information gathering and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

671. Jamaica has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Jamaica notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

672. Jamaica has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 28 jurisdictions.²

673. As Jamaica did not issue any rulings within the scope of the transparency framework in the relevant period, Jamaica was not required to exchange any information on rulings in the year in review and no data on the timeliness of exchanges can be reported.

674. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Jamaica's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Jamaica's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

675. Jamaica has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information and a process for completing the templates in a timely way. Jamaica has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

676. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

677. Jamaica does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Japan

Japan has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Japan can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Japan issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	51
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	12
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	14
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	16
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	4
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	29
Future rulings in the year in review	6

Peer input was received from one jurisdiction in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Japan. The input was generally positive, noting that information was complete, in a correct format and almost all received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

678. Japan can legally issue the following three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (ii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iii) related party conduit rulings.

679. For Japan, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

680. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Japan's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Japan's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Japan's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

681. Japan has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

682. Japan has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Japan notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

683. Japan has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 77 jurisdictions.¹

684. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	10	2	Covid-19 pandemic (see below)	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
		0	N/A

685. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Japan's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. However, it was also noted that some exchanges were delayed because the Express Mail Service from Japan to some jurisdictions had been suspended in light of the Covid-19 pandemic. Japan noted that it was seeking alternate solutions for exchanges in the meantime, and it was not expected to be a recurring problem. Therefore, no recommendation was given, and the issue would be reviewed again this year's peer review to monitor whether there is a persistent issue.

686. During the year in review, as noted by Japan in the prior year's peer review report, six exchanges of rulings issued during 2020 were transmitted in 2021, and two exchanges were delayed. Japan notes that for now, there is no prospect of resuming the Express Mail Service. Therefore, in order to resolve this issue and to avoid any delays, Japan now uses an online storage service or, under certain conditions, e-mail. As a solution has been found to solve this issue, no recommendation has been made.

687. Japan has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Japan has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

688. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	12	Belgium, Hong Kong (China), Ireland, Singapore, United Kingdom, United States
Permanent establishment rulings	0	N/A
Related party conduit rulings	0	N/A

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

689. Japan does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Jersey

Jersey has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Jersey can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Jersey issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	16
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2017 – 31 December 2017	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	0
Future rulings in the year in review	1

Peer input was received from one jurisdiction in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Jersey. The input was positive, noting that information was complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

690. Jersey can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (ii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings.

691. For Jersey, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

692. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Jersey's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Jersey's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Jersey's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

693. Jersey has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

694. Jersey has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Jersey notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

695. Jersey has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) being a jurisdiction participating in the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011⁽¹⁾) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 16 jurisdictions.¹

696. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	2	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

697. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Jersey's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Jersey's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

698. Jersey has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Jersey has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

699. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	0	N/A
Cross-border rulings providing for a unilateral downward adjustment to the taxpayer's taxable profits that is not directly reflected in the taxpayer's financial / commercial accounts	0	N/A
Permanent establishment rulings	De minimis rule applies	N/A
Related party conduit rulings	0	N/A
De minimis rule	2	N/A
Total	2

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

700. Jersey does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Jordan

Jordan has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for having the necessary information gathering process in place (ToR I.A), having a domestic legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information and exchanging information on the tax rulings in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework (ToR II.B) and for identifying and exchanging information on all new entrants to the IP regime (ToR I.A.1.3). Jordan receives three recommendations on these points for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in 2019 and partly in the 2017-2018 peer review reports, Jordan had received the same three recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Jordan can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework. In practice, Jordan issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges took place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Jordan.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

701. Jordan can legally issue the following one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes.¹

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

702. For Jordan, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 September 2017; and (ii) and on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided still in effect as at 1 January 2015. However, as Jordan put in place an administrative process to issue rulings in 2019, there are no past rulings that have been issued by Jordan in the relevant period.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

703. For Jordan, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 September 2017. Jordan only put in place an administrative process to issue rulings in 2019. No future rulings were issued by Jordan during the period in review.

704. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Jordan did not yet have specific mechanisms in place for identifying future rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions within the scope of the transparency framework. During the year in review, Jordan did not implement such mechanisms, and therefore the recommendation remains in place. The Income and Sales Tax Department (ISTD) within the Ministry of Finance is currently working on introducing a mechanism to identify future rulings that are in the scope of the transparency framework and all jurisdictions for which the tax ruling would be relevant. Jordan indicated that detailed procedures and guidance are expected to be developed in 2023.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

705. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Jordan did not yet have a review and supervision mechanism under the transparency framework. During the year in review, Jordan did not implement such a review and supervision mechanism, and therefore the recommendation remains in place. Jordan is currently considering the implementation of review and supervision mechanisms within ISTD to ensure that all relevant information related to future rulings is captured adequately.

Conclusion on section A

706. Jordan does not have specific mechanisms in place for identifying relevant rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions within the scope of the transparency framework as well as for reviewing and supervising that all relevant information is captured adequately. Jordan is recommended to ensure that it has put in place an effective information gathering process to identify all relevant rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

707. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Jordan did not yet have the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. During the year in review, Jordan did not introduce such a domestic legal framework, and therefore the recommendation remains in place. ISTD is currently in the process of putting in place the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously and this is expected to be completed in 2023. Jordan can only exchange information on request.

708. Jordan has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”).²

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

709. In the prior year’s peer review report, it was determined that Jordan did not yet have a process to exchange information on rulings in accordance with the form and timelines required by the transparency framework. During the year in review, Jordan did not introduce such a process, and therefore the recommendation remains in place. Jordan is currently considering the implementation of a process within ISTD to ensure the timely exchange of information on future rulings.

Conclusion on section B

710. Jordan does not yet have the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously and a process to exchange information on rulings in the required format and timelines. Jordan is recommended to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on the relevant tax rulings and to ensure the timely exchange of information on rulings in the form required by the transparency framework, as soon as possible (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

711. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

712. Jordan offers one intellectual property regime (IP regime).³ The assessment of transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]), is as follows:

- New entrants benefitting from the grandfathered IP regime: the Development zone regime was reported in the year 2019 as actually harmful. In January 2021, Jordan issued regulation as well as a legally binding opinion and an administrative act, both annexed to the regulation, amending the regime as of 1 January 2021 with no grandfathering provided to existing taxpayers. The FHTP approved these documents and concluded that the regime was compliant with the FHTP standard and therefore updated the conclusion to “not harmful (amended)”. Throughout the period in which the regime is considered “harmful”, Jordan is expected to have information available and to have exchanged information on new entrants as of the relevant date from which the enhanced transparency obligations apply (i.e. 16 October 2017) until the date the regime is amended (i.e. 1 January 2021). During the year in review, Jordan has not identified information on new entrants to the Development zone regime for the relevant period indicated above, and as such has not exchanged information on these taxpayers. Jordan has indicated that a process to identify new entrants to the Development zone regime for the relevant period will be developed in 2023. Therefore, Jordan is recommended to identify information and to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on all new entrants to the IP regime, as soon as possible (ToR I.A.1.3).
- Third category of IP assets: not applicable to this regime.

- Taxpayers making the use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption: not applicable to this regime.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Jordan does not have specific mechanisms in place for identifying relevant rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions within the scope of the transparency framework as well as for reviewing and supervising that all relevant information is captured adequately.	Jordan is recommended to ensure that it has put in place an effective information gathering process to identify all relevant rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.
Jordan does not yet have the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously and a process to exchange information on rulings in the required format and timelines. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.
Jordan has not identified information on new entrants to the Development zone IP regime during the relevant period, and has not exchanged information on these taxpayers.	Jordan is recommended to identify information and to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on all new entrants to the IP regime, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the prior year's peer review report. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Jurisdiction's response and recent developments

713. The ISTD will be restructured in the coming months and there are plans to set up a directorate dedicated to Development zones and other Free zones that will allow ISTD to meet the information gathering process requirements also with regard to new entrants benefitting from the grandfathered IP regime. Regarding the exchange of information aspects, work on the implementation of the spontaneous exchange of information will begin immediately after the implementation of the Automatic Exchange of Information, which is currently underway as planned with the Global Forum.

Kazakhstan

Kazakhstan is taking steps to implement the legal basis for the transparency framework and to commence administrative preparations in line with the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) to ensure that it finalises information gathering process (ToR I.A) and information on rulings will be identified and exchanged in a timely manner (ToR II.B). Kazakhstan receives two recommendations on these points for the calendar year 2021 (year in review).

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2018 and 2019 peer review reports, Kazakhstan received the same two recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Kazakhstan can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Kazakhstan issued one past ruling and no future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges took place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Kazakhstan.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

714. Kazakhstan can legally issue the following type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

715. For Kazakhstan, past rulings are any tax rulings issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2016 but before 1 April 2018; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 January 2016, provided still in effect as at 1 January 2016.

716. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was noted that Kazakhstan issued one past ruling and that the responsible team is continuing to put in place guidelines and practices to collect and record the relevant information for the purposes of the transparency framework. As Kazakhstan has not finalised this process for the year in review, the recommendation remains in place.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

717. For Kazakhstan, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2018.

718. In the prior years' peer review reports, Kazakhstan noted that when requesting an APA, the taxpayer must identify all transactions that will be covered by the agreement and provide all necessary information about these related parties. However, for the year in review, it is still not clear whether information on the immediate parent and ultimate parent is being collected. It is noted that guidelines and practices are being implemented to make sure that the relevant information is adequately processed for the purposes of the transparency framework. As such, the recommendation remains in place.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

719. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Kazakhstan was in the process of implementing a review and supervision mechanism. Once issued by the transfer pricing division, rulings should be reviewed by the non-residents taxation division, which will be responsible to collect the relevant information and to make sure that all relevant information is captured adequately and submitted to all relevant jurisdictions without delay. Kazakhstan is still implementing the process and therefore, the recommendation remains in place.

Conclusion on section A

720. Kazakhstan is recommended to finalise its information gathering process, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

721. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Kazakhstan did not have the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Kazakhstan intends to draft regulations that will allow for the spontaneous exchange of information on tax rulings in future. However, for the year in review, Kazakhstan has not yet put in place the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously.

722. Kazakhstan has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”) and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 59 jurisdictions.¹

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

723. In the prior years’ peer review reports, it was determined that Kazakhstan was still developing a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions. Kazakhstan has not yet put in place such a process for the year in review.

724. During the year in review, no exchanges took place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

Conclusion on section B

725. Kazakhstan is recommended to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings and to continue its efforts to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

726. As there was no information on rulings exchanged by Kazakhstan for the year in review, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

727. Kazakhstan does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Kazakhstan has not yet finalised the steps to have in place its necessary information and gathering process.	Kazakhstan is recommended to finalise its information gathering process, with a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.
Kazakhstan has not yet finalised the steps to have effective compulsory spontaneous exchange of information on the tax rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.	Kazakhstan is recommended to continue to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings and to continue its efforts to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Kenya

Kenya has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Kenya can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Kenya issue no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Kenya.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

728. Kenya can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings.

729. For Kenya, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2016 but before 1 April 2018; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 January 2016, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2016. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2018.

730. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Kenya's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Kenya's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Kenya's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

731. Kenya has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

732. Kenya has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Kenya notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

733. Kenya has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 15 jurisdictions.²

734. As no rulings are issued in practice, no data on the timeliness of exchanges can be reported.

735. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Kenya's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Kenya's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

736. Kenya has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information and a process for completing the templates in a timely way. Kenya has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

737. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

738. Kenya does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Korea

Korea has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Korea can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Korea issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	45
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	4
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	5
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	5
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	12
Future rulings in the year in review	4

Peer input was received from one jurisdiction in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Korea. The input was positive, noting that information was complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

739. Korea can legally issue the following type of ruling within the scope of the transparency framework: cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles.

740. For Korea, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

741. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Korea's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Korea's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Korea's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

742. Korea has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

743. Korea has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Korea notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

744. Korea has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 93 jurisdictions.¹

745. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	33	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

746. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Korea's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Korea experienced delays for the exchange of information related to one ruling due to a human error, and that Korea strengthened its process in response. During the year in review, Korea did not experience any delays. Therefore, Korea's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and continues to meet the minimum standard.

747. Korea has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Korea has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

748. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	33	Australia, Canada, China (People's Republic of), Colombia, Germany, Hong Kong (China), India, Ireland, Japan, Malaysia, Netherlands, Russia, Singapore, Thailand, United Kingdom, United States
IP regimes: total exchanges on taxpayers benefitting from the third category of IP assets, new entrants benefitting from grandfathered IP regimes; and taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption	0	N/A

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

749. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Korea's information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes² were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Korea's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Latvia

Latvia has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Latvia can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Latvia issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	1
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	2
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	3
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	4
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	4
Future rulings in the year in review	2

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Latvia.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

750. Latvia can legally issue the following three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; and (iii) permanent establishment rulings.

751. For Latvia, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

752. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Latvia's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Latvia's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Latvia's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

753. Latvia has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

754. Latvia has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Latvia notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

755. Latvia has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 62 jurisdictions.²

756. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	2	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
		0	N/A

757. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Latvia's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Latvia's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

758. Latvia has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Latvia has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

759. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	0	N/A
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	De minimis rule applies	N/A
Permanent establishment rulings	0	N/A
De minimis rule	2	N/A
Total	2

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

760. Latvia does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Liberia

Liberia is taking steps to implement the aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the transparency framework and to commence administrative preparations to ensure that it establishes an information gathering process (ToR I.A) and information on rulings will be identified and exchanged in a timely manner (ToR II.B). Liberia receives two recommendations on these points for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, Liberia was not assessed for the transparency framework, as it did not issue any rulings. However, as Liberia now has implemented an administrative process to issue rulings, it is reviewed and recommendations have been made as relevant.

Liberia can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Liberia issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	0
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2017 – 31 December 2017	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	0
Future rulings in the year in review	0

As no exchanges took place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Liberia.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

761. Liberia can legally issue the following type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

762. For Liberia, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015.

763. Liberia confirms that no past rulings have been issued, as its administrative framework for issuing rulings only took effect at a later stage. Therefore, no recommendations are made regarding past rulings.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

764. For Liberia, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

765. Liberia indicates that there are not yet processes in place to ensure the implementation of the obligations relating to the transparency framework.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

766. Liberia did not yet have a review and supervision mechanism under the transparency framework for the year in review.

Conclusion on section A

767. Liberia is recommended to ensure that it has put in place an effective information gathering process to identify all relevant future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions and to implement a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

768. Liberia has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Liberia notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

769. Liberia has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”) and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 1 jurisdiction.¹ Liberia signed the Convention on 11 June 2018 and deposited its instrument of ratification on 26 August 2021. The Convention entered into force on 1 December 2021 and will have effect for administrative assistance related to taxable periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022.

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

770. Liberia does not yet have a process to complete the templates on all relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions.

771. During the year in review, no exchanges took place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

Conclusion on section B

772. Liberia is recommended to develop a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework going forward (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

773. As there was no information on rulings exchanged by Liberia for the year in review, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

774. Liberia does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Liberia does not yet have the necessary information gathering process in place.	Liberia is recommended to ensure that it has put in place an effective information gathering process to identify all relevant past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions and to implement a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible.
Liberia does not yet have a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions.	Liberia is recommended to develop a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework going forward.

Liechtenstein

Liechtenstein has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Liechtenstein can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Liechtenstein issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	18
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2017 – 31 December 2017	6
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	5
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	3
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	14
Future rulings in the year in review	6

Peer input was received from one jurisdiction in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Liechtenstein. The input was positive, noting that information was complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

775. Liechtenstein can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (ii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings.

776. For Liechtenstein, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2017. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

777. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Liechtenstein's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Liechtenstein's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Liechtenstein's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

778. Liechtenstein has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

779. Liechtenstein has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Liechtenstein notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

780. Liechtenstein has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 15 jurisdictions.¹

781. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	14	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
		0	N/A

782. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Liechtenstein's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required from Liechtenstein. Liechtenstein's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

783. Liechtenstein has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Liechtenstein has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

784. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	2	De minimis rule applies
Cross-border rulings providing for a unilateral downward adjustment to the taxpayer's taxable profits that is not directly reflected in the taxpayer's financial / commercial accounts	0	N/A
Permanent establishment rulings	12	Austria, Germany, Israel, Luxembourg, Norway, Switzerland, United Kingdom
Related party conduit rulings	0	N/A
Total	14

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

785. Liechtenstein does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement

Lithuania

Lithuania has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Lithuania can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Lithuania issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	5
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2017 – 31 December 2017	6
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	5
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	9
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	4
Future rulings in the year in review	5

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Lithuania.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

786. Lithuania can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

787. For Lithuania, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

788. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Lithuania's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Lithuania's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. For past rulings, Lithuania's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

789. Lithuania has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

790. Lithuania has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Lithuania notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

791. Lithuania has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 56 jurisdictions.²

792. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments

793. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Lithuania's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Lithuania's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

794. Lithuania has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Lithuania has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

795. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	3	De minimis rule applies
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	1	De minimis rule applies
Cross-border rulings providing for a unilateral downward adjustment to the taxpayer's taxable profits that is not directly reflected in the taxpayer's financial / commercial accounts	0	N/A

Luxembourg

Luxembourg has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Luxembourg can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Luxembourg issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	1 922
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	73
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	18

Peer input was received from one jurisdiction in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Luxembourg. The input was positive, noting that information was complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

797. Luxembourg can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; and (iv) permanent establishment rulings.

798. For Luxembourg, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

799. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Luxembourg's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Luxembourg's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Luxembourg's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

800. Luxembourg has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

801. Luxembourg has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Luxembourg notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

804. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Luxembourg's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Luxembourg's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

805. Luxembourg has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Luxembourg has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

806. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	0	N/A
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	1	De minimis rule applies
Cross-border rulings providing for a unilateral downward adjustment to the taxpayer's taxable profits that is not directly reflected in the taxpayer's financial / commercial accounts	0	N/A
Permanent establishment rulings	8	Cyprus, France, Germany, Switzerland, United Kingdom, United States
IP regimes: total exchanges on taxpayers benefitting from the third category of IP assets, new entrants benefitting from grandfathered IP regimes; and taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption	1	De minimis rule applies
Total	10 ⁴

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

807. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Luxembourg's information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes⁵ were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Luxembourg's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Malaysia

Malaysia has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for identifying all potential exchange jurisdictions for future rulings (ToR I.A.2.1) and for providing information on rulings to the Competent Authority without undue delay and undertaking spontaneous exchange of information on all future tax rulings within the scope of the transparency framework (ToR II.B). Malaysia receives two recommendations on these points for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2019 peer review report, Malaysia had received the same two recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Malaysia can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Malaysia issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	249
Future rulings in the period 1 September 2017 – 31 December 2017	23
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	51
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	69
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	40
Future rulings in the year in review	3

Peer input was received from five jurisdictions in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Malaysia. The input was generally positive, noting that overall information was complete, and in a correct format. However, peer input indicated that exchanges on rulings were not timely. This is reflected in the report.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

808. Malaysia can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

809. For Malaysia, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 September 2017; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015.

810. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Malaysia's undertakings to identify past rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Malaysia's implementation in this regard remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

811. For Malaysia, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 September 2017.

812. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Malaysia's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions have met all the ToR, except for identifying all potential exchange jurisdictions for future rulings (ToR I.A.2.1). Therefore, Malaysia was recommended to ensure that all potential exchange jurisdictions are identified swiftly for all future rulings.

813. During the year in review, Malaysia was still in the process of putting in place new requirements for taxpayers to provide the information required for completing the Annex C template upfront, including information on potential exchange jurisdictions. Malaysia is therefore recommended to continue its efforts to ensure that all potential exchange jurisdictions are identified swiftly for all future rulings.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

814. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Malaysia's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Malaysia's implementation in this regard remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Conclusion on section A

815. Malaysia has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process except for identifying all potential exchange jurisdictions for future rulings (ToR I.A.2.1). Malaysia is recommended to ensure that all potential exchange jurisdictions are identified swiftly for all future rulings.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

816. Malaysia has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Malaysia notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

817. Malaysia has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”) and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 73 jurisdictions.²

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

818. In the prior year’s peer review report, it was determined that Malaysia’s internal policies, processes and procedures for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard, except for the provision of information on rulings to the Competent Authority without undue delay, and the timely spontaneous exchange of information on past and future rulings (ToR II.B).

819. Malaysia’s internal procedures and timelines to provide information on rulings to the Competent Authority remain unchanged, and therefore the recommendation to reduce the timelines for providing information on rulings to the Competent Authority without undue delay remains.

820. During the year in review, Malaysia commenced its exchanges on future rulings, but still experienced some delays, thus exchanges have not yet been completed. Therefore, the recommendation to complete the templates for all relevant future rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible remains. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required.

821. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	0	20	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

Conclusion on section B

822. Malaysia has the necessary legal basis to undertake spontaneous exchange of information. Malaysia is recommended to continue its efforts to reduce the timeliness for providing the information on rulings to the Competent Authority and to complete the templates for all relevant future rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on future rulings occur as soon as possible (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

823. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	20	Australia, Belgium, China (People's Republic of), France, Indonesia, Korea, Luxembourg, Netherlands, New Zealand, Singapore, Switzerland, Chinese Taipei, Thailand
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	0	N/A
Cross-border rulings providing for a unilateral downward adjustment to the taxpayer's taxable profits that is not directly reflected in the taxpayer's financial / commercial accounts	0	N/A
Permanent establishment rulings	0	N/A
Related party conduit rulings	0	N/A
IP regimes: total exchanges on taxpayers benefitting from the third category of IP assets, new entrants benefitting from grandfathered IP regimes; and taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption	0	N/A
Total	20

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

824. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Malaysia's information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes³ were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Malaysia's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Malaysia experienced difficulties in identifying all potential exchange jurisdictions for future rulings.	Malaysia is recommended to continue its efforts to ensure that all potential exchange jurisdictions are identified swiftly for all future rulings. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2019 and 2020 year peer review reports.
Malaysia experienced delays in the provision of rulings to the Competent Authority and did not undertake spontaneous exchange of information on all future tax rulings within the scope of the transparency framework during the year in review.	Malaysia is recommended to continue its efforts to reduce the timeliness for providing the information on rulings to the Competent Authority and to complete the templates for all relevant future rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on future rulings occur as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Malta

Malta has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Malta can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Malta issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	7
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2017 – 31 December 2017	4
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	7
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	15
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	17
Future rulings in the year in review	13

Peer input was received from one jurisdiction in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Malta. The input was positive, noting that information was complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

825. Malta can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (ii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings.

826. For Malta, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

827. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Malta's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Malta's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Malta's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

828. Malta has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

829. Malta has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Malta notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

830. Malta has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) Directive 2011/16/EU with all other EU Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 78 jurisdictions.¹

831. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	9	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
		0	N/A

832. Malta confirms that all required exchanges were transmitted and notes that some of those exchanges related to rulings issued during the year in review were timely transmitted in early 2022. This will be reflected in next year's peer review report.

833. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Malta's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that there were some delays because Malta applied the EU DAC3 timelines and Malta confirmed that it had changed its procedures. During the year in review, there were no delays, and therefore Malta's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and continues to meet the minimum standard.

834. Malta has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Malta has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

835. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	0	N/A
Cross-border rulings providing for a unilateral downward adjustment to the taxpayer's taxable profits that is not directly reflected in the taxpayer's financial / commercial accounts	0	N/A
Permanent establishment rulings	0	N/A
Related party conduit rulings	9	Austria, Australia, Chile, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Panama, Portugal
IP regimes: total exchanges on taxpayers benefitting from the third category of IP assets, new entrants benefitting from grandfathered IP regimes; and taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption	0	N/A
Total	9

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

836. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Malta's information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes² were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Malta's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Mauritius

Mauritius has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Mauritius can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Mauritius issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	20
Future rulings in the period 1 September 2017 – 31 December 2017	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	10
Future rulings in the year in review	6

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Mauritius.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

837. Mauritius can legally issue the following three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; and (iii) permanent establishment rulings.

838. For Mauritius, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 September 2017; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 September 2017.

839. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Mauritius' undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Mauritius' review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Mauritius' implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

840. Mauritius has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

841. Mauritius has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Mauritius notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

842. Mauritius has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011_[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 46 jurisdictions.²

843. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	6	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
		0	N/A

844. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Mauritius' process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Mauritius' implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

845. Mauritius has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Mauritius has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

846. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	5	Guernsey, India, Singapore, United Kingdom, United States
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	0	N/A
Permanent establishment rulings	1	De minimis rule applies
IP regimes: total exchanges on taxpayers benefitting from the third category of IP assets, new entrants benefitting from grandfathered IP regimes; and taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption	0	N/A
Total	6

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

847. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Mauritius's information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes³ were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Mauritius's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Mexico

Mexico has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Mexico can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Mexico issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	13
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	328
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	294
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	48
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	44
Future rulings in the year in review	80

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Mexico.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

848. Mexico can legally issue the following two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles and (ii) permanent establishment rulings.

849. For Mexico, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

850. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Mexico's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Mexico's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Mexico's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

851. Mexico has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

852. Mexico has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Mexico notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

853. Mexico has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) bilateral agreements in force with seven jurisdictions and (iii) tax information exchange agreements in force with three jurisdictions.¹

854. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	83	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

855. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Mexico's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Mexico's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

856. Mexico has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Mexico has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

857. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	83	Canada, Hong Kong (China), Korea, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Singapore, United States
Permanent establishment rulings	0	N/A
Total	83

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

858. Mexico does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Morocco

Morocco has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Morocco can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Morocco issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	4
Future rulings in the year in review	0

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Morocco.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

859. Morocco can legally issue the following type of ruling within the scope of the transparency framework: cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles.

860. For Morocco, past rulings are any tax rulings issued prior to 1 September 2019. However, there is no obligation for Morocco to conduct spontaneous exchange information on past rulings. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 September 2019.

861. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Morocco's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Morocco's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. For the year 2019, the ToR for the information gathering process was met. For the year 2020, Morocco issued rulings and met all of the ToR for the information gathering process. Morocco's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

862. Morocco has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

863. Morocco has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Morocco notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

864. Morocco has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 59 jurisdictions.¹

865. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	4	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

866. During the year in review, Morocco did not issue any rulings in scope of the transparency framework and therefore no exchanges were required to take place in respect of rulings issued in the year in review. As mentioned in the prior year's peer review report, the reported data on the timeliness of exchanges relates to rulings issued in October 2020 for which the required information was transmitted to the relevant exchange jurisdictions by March and April 2021.

867. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Morocco's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no action was required. Morocco's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

868. Morocco has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Morocco has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

869. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	4	De minimis rule applies

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

870. Morocco does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Namibia

Namibia is taking steps to implement the aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the transparency framework and to commence administrative preparations to ensure that it establishes an information gathering process (ToR I.A) and that information on rulings will be identified and exchanged in a timely manner (ToR II.B). Namibia receives two recommendations on these points for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, Namibia had received the same recommendations. As they have not been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

Namibia can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Namibia issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges took place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Namibia.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

871. Namibia can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (ii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

872. For Namibia, past rulings are any tax rulings issued prior to 1 March 2020. However, there is no obligation for Namibia to conduct spontaneous exchange information on past rulings.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

873. For Namibia, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 March 2020.

874. No rulings were issued by Namibia during the future rulings period in the year in review. However, in the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Namibia did not yet have processes in place to ensure the implementation of the obligations relating to the transparency framework. During the year in review, Namibia started to develop a process and asked the FHTP Secretariat for assistance, but did not yet implement such a process, and therefore the recommendation remains in place.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

875. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Namibia did not yet have a review and supervision mechanism under the transparency framework. During the year in review, Namibia did not implement such a review and supervision mechanism, and therefore the recommendation remains in place.

Conclusion on section A

876. Namibia is recommended to ensure that it has put in place an effective information gathering process to identify all relevant future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions and to implement a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

877. In the prior year's peer review report, it was noted that although Namibia does not have an explicit domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously, international agreements can override secrecy provisions prohibiting the exchange of information. Therefore, Namibia will be able to exchange information on rulings with jurisdictions that are treaty partners. Furthermore, there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

878. Namibia has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010

Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”), which entered into effect during the year in review, and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 11 jurisdictions.¹

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

879. In the prior year’s peer review report, it was determined that Namibia did not yet have a process to complete the templates on all relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions. During the year in review, Namibia started to develop a process and asked the FHTP Secretariat for assistance, but did not yet implement such a process, and therefore the recommendation remains in place.

880. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

Conclusion on section B

881. Namibia is recommended to develop a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework going forward (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

882. As there was no information on rulings exchanged by Namibia for the year in review, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

883. Namibia does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Namibia does not yet have the necessary information gathering process in place.	Namibia is recommended to ensure that it has put in place an effective information gathering process to identify all relevant past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions and to implement a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2020 peer review.
Namibia does not yet have a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions. Netherlands

The Netherlands has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for the timely provision of information on rulings to the Competent Authority for exchange of information (ToR II.B.5). The Netherlands receives one recommendation on this point for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, the Netherlands had received the same recommendation. As it has not been fully addressed, the recommendation remains in place.

The Netherlands can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, the Netherlands issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	2 206
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	297
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	214
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	272
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	403
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	263
Future rulings in the year in review	299

Peer input was received from eight jurisdictions in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from the Netherlands. The input was generally positive, noting that overall information was complete and in a correct format. However, two peers indicated that exchanges on rulings were not timely. This is reflected in the report.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

884. The Netherlands can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments;² and (iv) permanent establishment rulings.

885. For the Netherlands, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

886. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that the Netherlands' undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that the Netherlands' review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. The Netherlands' implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

887. The Netherlands has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

888. The Netherlands has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. The Netherlands notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

889. The Netherlands has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 94 jurisdictions.³

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

890. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that the Netherlands' process for the completion and exchange of templates met all the ToR, except for the timely provision of information on rulings to the competent authority for exchange of information (ToR II.B.5). Therefore, the Netherlands was recommended to ensure that information is made available to the competent authority without undue delay.

891. During the year in review, some peers indicated that some information on rulings was exchanged with a delay. As was the case last year, the Netherlands confirms that information on rulings was exchanged within three months after the information became available to the competent authority, but that there has been a delay in transmitting issued rulings to the competent authority as the tax administration needed additional time to complete the Annex C template. The Netherlands indicates that it has taken steps to address this issue. It now requires that a ruling can only be issued once all information to complete the Annex C template is available and that all templates will be sent to the Competent Authority every two months. This new process takes effect from 1 January 2022, and therefore, for the year in review, the recommendation remains in place.

892. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	1 231	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	6	100 days	3

893. For the year in review, three follow-up requests have not yet been answered due to ongoing inquiries.

Conclusion on section B

894. The Netherlands has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information. The Netherlands has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process except for the timely provision of information on rulings to the competent authority for exchange of information (ToR II.B.5). The Netherlands is recommended to ensure that information is made available to the Competent Authority without undue delay.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

895. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

896. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that the Netherlands' information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes⁵ were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. The Netherlands' implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
The Netherlands experienced delays in the provision of rulings to the competent authority.	The Netherlands is recommended to ensure that information is made available to the competent authority without undue delay. This recommendation remains unchanged since the prior year's peer review report.

New Zealand

New Zealand has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

New Zealand can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework, but in practice only issues three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, New Zealand issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	69
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	14
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	15
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	8
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	21
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	18
Future rulings in the year in review	20

Peer input was received from three jurisdictions in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from New Zealand. The input was positive, noting that information was complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

897. New Zealand can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework, but in practice issues the three following types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (ii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iii) related party conduit rulings.

898. For New Zealand, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

899. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that New Zealand's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that New Zealand's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. New Zealand's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

900. New Zealand has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

901. New Zealand has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. New Zealand notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

902. New Zealand has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 40 jurisdictions.¹

903. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments

904. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that New Zealand's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. New Zealand's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

905. New Zealand has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. New Zealand has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

906. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	49	Australia, Austria, Barbados, Belgium, China (People's Republic of), Germany, Hong Kong (China), Indonesia, Ireland, Japan, Luxembourg, Malaysia, Netherlands, Philippines, Singapore, Switzerland, Thailand, United States

Nigeria

Nigeria is taking steps to implement the aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the transparency framework and to commence administrative preparations to ensure that it establishes an information gathering process (ToR I.A) and information on rulings will be identified and exchanged in a timely manner (ToR II.B). Nigeria receives two recommendations on these points for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, Nigeria was not assessed for the transparency framework. However, as Nigeria has an administrative practice to issue rulings, it is reviewed and recommendations have been made as relevant.

Nigeria can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Nigeria issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework. However, as Nigeria does not yet have administrative processes in place to identify the relevant rulings, it is unknown how many rulings in scope of the transparency framework have been issued.

As no exchanges took place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Nigeria.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

908. Nigeria can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

909. For Nigeria, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015.

910. Nigeria confirms that no past rulings have been issued, as its administrative framework for issuing rulings only took effect at a later stage. Therefore, no recommendations are made regarding past rulings.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

911. For Nigeria, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

912. Nigeria indicates that there are not yet processes in place to ensure the implementation of the obligations relating to the transparency framework.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

913. Nigeria did not yet have a review and supervision mechanism under the transparency framework for the year in review.

Conclusion on section A

914. Nigeria is recommended to ensure that it has put in place an effective information gathering process to identify all relevant future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions and to implement a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

915. Nigeria has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Nigeria notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

916. Nigeria has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011_[1]) (“the Convention”) and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 14 jurisdictions.²

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

917. Nigeria does not yet have a process to complete the templates on all relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions.

918. During the year in review, no exchanges took place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

Conclusion on section B

919. Nigeria is recommended to develop a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework going forward (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

920. As there was no information on rulings exchanged by Nigeria for the year in review, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

921. Nigeria does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Nigeria does not yet have the necessary information gathering process in place.	Nigeria is recommended to ensure that it has put in place an effective information gathering process to identify all relevant past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions and to implement a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible.
Nigeria does not yet have a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions.	Nigeria is recommended to develop a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework going forward.

Norway

Norway has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Norway can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Norway issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	1
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	0
Future rulings in the year in review	0

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Norway.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

922. Norway can legally issue the following three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles in relation to realisation of natural gas for companies liable to tax under the Petroleum Tax Act; and (iii) related party conduit rulings.

923. For Norway, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

924. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Norway's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Norway's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Norway's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

925. Norway has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

926. Norway has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Norway notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

927. Norway has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Nordic Convention on Assistance in Tax Matters and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 84 jurisdictions.²

928. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

929. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Norway's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Norway's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

930. Norway has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Norway has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

931. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

932. Norway does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Pakistan

Pakistan is taking steps to implement the aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the transparency framework and to commence administrative preparations to ensure that it establishes an information gathering process (ToR I.A) and information on rulings will be identified and exchanged in a timely manner (ToR II.B). Pakistan receives two recommendations on these points for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, Pakistan was not assessed for the transparency framework. However, as Pakistan has a legal and administrative process to issue rulings, it is reviewed and recommendations have been made as relevant.

Pakistan can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Pakistan issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	0
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2017 – 31 December 2017	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	0
Future rulings in the year in review	0

As no exchanges took place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Pakistan.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

933. Pakistan can legally issue the following type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

934. For Pakistan, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015.

935. Pakistan confirms that no past rulings have been issued. Therefore, Pakistan is not required to ensure the implementation of the obligations relating to the transparency framework for past rulings.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

936. For Pakistan, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

937. Pakistan can issue future rulings based on Section 206A of the Income Tax Ordinance 2001 and Section 231A of the Income Tax Rules 2002. There is a prescribed application form included in the Schedule to Section 231A of the Income Tax Rules 2002. The rulings that have been issued so far are available on the website of the Federal Board of Revenue.² The taxpayer can apply for a ruling to the Advance Ruling Committee, which is chaired by the Central Board of Revenue.

938. Pakistan is currently taking steps to put a process in place to ensure the implementation of the obligations relating to the transparency framework.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

939. Pakistan did not yet have a review and supervision mechanism under the transparency framework for the year in review.

940. Pakistan is recommended to ensure that it has put in place an effective information gathering process to identify all relevant future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions and to implement a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

941. Pakistan has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Pakistan notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

942. Pakistan has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”) and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 66 jurisdictions.³

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

943. Pakistan is currently taking steps to put a process in place to complete the templates on all relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions.

944. During the year in review, no exchanges took place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

Conclusion on section B

945. Pakistan is recommended to develop a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework going forward (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

946. As there was no information on rulings exchanged by Pakistan for the year in review, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

947. Pakistan does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015[1]) were imposed.

Peru

Peru has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Peru can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Peru issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Peru.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

948. Peru can legally issue the following type of ruling within the scope of the transparency framework: cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles.¹

949. For Peru, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 September 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 September 2017.

950. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Peru's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Peru's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In prior year's peer review report, it was determined that officials from the Large National Taxpayer Unit manually verify all tax rulings issued to identify those that fall within the scope of the transparency framework and report this information to the relevant departments. For the purpose of formalising the process, Peru noted that a structured procedure will be established by the end of 2022 to capture and verify relevant information appropriately. During the year in review, Peru continued its work on the development of this procedure. Peru's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

951. Peru has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

952. Peru has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Peru notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

953. Peru has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) bilateral agreements in force with seven jurisdictions and (iii) tax information exchange agreements in force with two jurisdictions.²

954. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

955. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Peru's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Peru's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

956. Peru has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. In the prior year's peer review report, it was noted that Peru will establish a structured procedure for the completion and exchange of templates for the purpose of formalising the process by the end of 2022. During the year in review, Peru continued its work on the development of this procedure. Peru has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

957. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

958. Peru does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Notes

¹ Rulings other than APAs are known in Peru as “particular consultations”. Particular consultations are issued in accordance with article 95-A of the Tax Code and relate to the tax regime applicable to specific facts or situations addressed by a taxpayer with a legitimate interest. Particular consultations are specific rulings on which the particular taxpayer is entitled to rely. However, Peru clarified that particular consultations cannot be issued on any of the categories of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework except for issues covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles that fall outside the scope of an APA. Therefore, particular consultations fall in the “any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles”.

Philippines

The Philippines is taking steps to implement the legal basis for exchange under the transparency framework, and by commencing administrative preparations to ensure that information on rulings will be exchanged once the new legal basis is in place. The Philippines has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for identifying all potential exchange jurisdictions for both past and future rulings (ToR I.A.2.1 and ToR I.A.2.2) and having in place a process to ensure the timely exchange of information on rulings in the form required by the transparency framework (ToR II.B). The Philippines receives three recommendations on this point for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2017-2019 peer review reports, the Philippines had received the same three recommendations. As they have not fully been addressed, the recommendations remain in place.

The Philippines can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, the Philippines issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	78
Future rulings in the period 1 September 2017 – 31 December 2017	4
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	30
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	10
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	15
Future rulings in the year in review	54

As no exchanges took place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from The Philippines.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

959. The Philippines can legally issue the following type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: permanent establishment rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

960. For the Philippines, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 September 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015.

961. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that the Philippines' undertakings to identify past rulings met the ToR. However, the Philippines was recommended to apply the "best efforts approach" to identify potential exchange jurisdictions, in particular for the ultimate parent company, as this was the only type of information on potential exchange jurisdictions that was not provided by the taxpayer upon application.

962. During the year in review, the Philippines experienced similar problems and therefore the prior years' recommendation remains. The Philippines notes that it is currently addressing these issues, including capacity building and working in co-operation with the Department of Finance.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

963. For the Philippines, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 September 2017.

964. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that the Philippines' undertakings in respect of future rulings met the ToR, except for identifying all potential exchange jurisdictions (ToR I.A.2.1). As for past rulings, the only required information on potential exchange jurisdictions that was not provided by the taxpayer upon application was related to the ultimate parent company. Therefore, the Philippines was recommended to ensure that all potential exchange jurisdictions are identified swiftly for future rulings.

965. During the year in review, the Philippines experienced similar problems and therefore the prior years' recommendation remains. The Philippines notes that it is currently addressing these issues, including capacity building and working in co-operation with the Department of Finance.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

966. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that The Philippines's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. The Philippines's implementation in this regard remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Conclusion on section A

967. The Philippines has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process, except for applying the "best efforts approach" for past rulings (ToR I.A.2.2), identifying all potential exchange jurisdictions for future rulings (ToR I.A.2.1). The Philippines is recommended to apply the best efforts approach for past rulings with respect to identifying the ultimate parent company, and to ensure that all potential exchange jurisdictions are identified swiftly for future rulings.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

968. The Philippines has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. The Philippines notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

969. The Philippines has bilateral agreements with 43 jurisdictions permitting spontaneous exchange of information.¹ The Philippines signed the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”) in September 2014, but the Philippines has not yet ratified the Convention. The Philippines is therefore encouraged to continue its efforts to ratify the Convention and expand its international exchange of information on rulings. It is noted, however, that jurisdictions are assessed on their compliance with the transparency framework in respect of the exchange of information network in effect for the year of the particular annual review.

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

970. As the Philippines does not yet have the legal basis for exchanges, the process for the completion and exchange of templates has not been put in place. The Philippines is recommended to put in place a process for the completion and exchange of templates to ensure the exchanges can take place as soon as the legal basis is in force.

971. For the year in review, as there is no domestic legal basis for exchange, no data on the timeliness of exchanges can be reported.

Conclusion on section B

972. The Philippines has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information. The Philippines is recommended to continue its efforts to put in place a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible (ToR II.B).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

973. As there was no information on rulings exchanged by The Philippines for the year in review, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

974. The Philippines does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
The Philippines does not currently collect information on all potential exchange jurisdictions, particularly the ultimate parent company for past rulings.	The Philippines is recommended to apply the “best efforts approach” to identify potential exchange jurisdictions for all past rulings. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.
The Philippines does not currently collect information on all potential exchange jurisdictions, particularly the ultimate parent company for future rulings.	The Philippines is recommended to ensure that all potential exchange jurisdictions are identified swiftly for future rulings. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.
The Philippines does not yet have a process in place to ensure the timely exchange of information on rulings in the form required by the transparency framework.	The Philippines is recommended to continue its efforts to put in place a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Poland

Poland has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Poland can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Poland issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	84
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	6
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	20
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	16
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	100
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	108
Future rulings in the year in review	170

Peer input was received from four jurisdictions in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Poland. The input was generally positive, noting that overall information was complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

975. Poland can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes; (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

976. For Poland, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014.

977. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Poland's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Poland's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Poland's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

978. Poland has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

979. Poland has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Poland notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

980. Poland has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 89 jurisdictions.¹

981. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	247	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
		0	N/A

982. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Poland's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Poland's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

983. Poland has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Poland has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

984. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	0	N/A
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	3	De minimis rule applies
Cross-border rulings providing for a unilateral downward adjustment to the taxpayer's taxable profits that is not directly reflected in the taxpayer's financial / commercial accounts	115	Australia, China (People's Republic of), Egypt, Georgia, India, Israel, Japan, Korea, Lithuania, North Macedonia, Norway, Qatar, Russia, South Africa, Switzerland, Türkiye, Ukraine, United Arab Emirates, United Kingdom, United States
Permanent establishment rulings	5	Norway, United Kingdom, United States
Related party conduit rulings	124	Australia, Canada, China (People's Republic of), Egypt, Iceland, India, Israel, Japan, Korea, Mexico, Norway, Pakistan, Russia, Singapore, South Africa, Switzerland, Thailand, Türkiye, Ukraine, United Arab Emirates, United Kingdom, United States, Viet Nam
IP regimes: total exchanges on taxpayers benefitting from the third category of IP assets, new entrants benefitting from grandfathered IP regimes; and taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption	0	N/A
Total	247

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

985. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Poland's information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes² were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Poland's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1008. Romania can legally issue the following two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles and (ii) permanent establishment rulings.

1009. For Romania, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

1010. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Romania's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Romania's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Romania's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1011. Romania has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1012. Romania has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Romania notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1013. Romania has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 88 jurisdictions.¹

1014. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	7	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
		0	N/A

1015. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Romania's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Romania's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1016. Romania has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Romania has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1017. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	7	Belgium, Cyprus, Germany, Moldova, Switzerland, United Kingdom,
Permanent establishment rulings	0	N/A
Total	7

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1018. Romania does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Saint Kitts and Nevis

Saint Kitts and Nevis has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Saint Kitts and Nevis can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Saint Kitts and Nevis issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Saint Kitts and Nevis.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1019. Saint Kitts and Nevis can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

1020. For Saint Kitts and Nevis, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued prior to 1 September 2018. However, there is no obligation for Saint Kitts and Nevis to conduct spontaneous exchange information on past rulings. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 September 2018.

1021. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Saint Kitts and Nevis's undertakings to identify rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Saint Kitts and Nevis's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Saint Kitts and Nevis's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1022. Saint Kitts and Nevis has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1023. Saint Kitts and Nevis has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Saint Kitts and Nevis notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1024. Saint Kitts and Nevis has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011_[1]) ("the Convention").²

1025. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

1026. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Saint Kitts and Nevis' process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Saint Kitts and Nevis' implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1027. Saint Kitts and Nevis has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information and a process for completing the templates in a timely way. Saint Kitts and Nevis has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1028. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1029. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Saint Kitts and Nevis's information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes³ were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Saint Kitts and Nevis's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Saint Lucia

Saint Lucia has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for identifying all potential exchange jurisdictions for future rulings (ToR I.A.2.1). Saint Lucia receives one recommendation on this point for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2018-2019 peer review reports, Saint Lucia had received the same recommendation. As it has not been addressed, the recommendation remains in place.

Saint Lucia can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Saint Lucia issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Saint Lucia.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1030. Saint Lucia can legally issue the following two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes¹ and (ii) permanent establishment rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

1031. For Saint Lucia, past rulings are any tax rulings issued prior to 1 September 2018. However, there is no obligation for Saint Lucia to conduct spontaneous exchange information on past rulings.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

1032. For Saint Lucia, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 September 2018.

1033. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Saint Lucia's undertakings to identify future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions have met all the ToR, except for the fact that taxpayers are not required to provide information on permanent establishments and ultimate parent companies, which means that not all information on potential exchange jurisdictions is collected. Therefore, Saint Lucia was recommended to ensure that all potential exchange jurisdictions are identified swiftly for all future rulings.

1034. During the year in review, no additional work was undertaken and therefore, the prior year recommendation remains.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

1035. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Saint Lucia's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Saint Lucia's implementation in this regard remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Conclusion on section A

1036. Saint Lucia has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process except for identifying all potential exchange jurisdictions for future rulings (ToR I.A.2.1). Saint Lucia is recommended to ensure that all potential exchange jurisdictions are identified swiftly for all future rulings.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1037. Saint Lucia has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Saint Lucia notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1038. Saint Lucia has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 16 jurisdictions.²

1040. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Saint Lucia's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Saint Lucia's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1041. Saint Lucia has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Saint Lucia has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1042. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1043. Saint Lucia does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Saint Lucia does not require taxpayers to provide all necessary information to identify all potential exchange jurisdictions for future rulings.	Saint Lucia is recommended to ensure that all potential exchange jurisdictions are identified swiftly for all future rulings. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Samoa

Samoa has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

This is Samoa's first review of implementation of the transparency framework.

Samoa can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Samoa issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Samoa.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1044. Samoa can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings. As stated in the Tax Administration Act (TAA) of 2012, it is the Commissioner of Inland Revenue Services (Commissioner) that has the authority to issue either a public or private rulings on tax related matters.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

1045. For Samoa, past rulings are any tax rulings issued prior to 1 September 2021. However, there is no obligation for Samoa to conduct spontaneous exchange information on past rulings.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

1046. For Samoa, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 September 2021.

1047. The ruling process in Samoa is well established despite the fact that no rulings have yet been issued. Any rulings issued are stored, both the hard copy and the electronic copy, in a confidential repository and database, respectively, within the Legal and Technical Division (LTD). LTD receives a notification from the Commissioner if there is a request for a ruling. A legal officer of LTD receives the notification for a request of ruling, enters the request into a spreadsheet and annotates the relevant details pertaining to the taxpayer and the timeline of the ruling. If a ruling is approved by the Commissioner, a hard copy is kept in a confidential repository, which is also stored in a secure Exchange of Information (EOI) room accessed only by LTD personnel. With regard to the electronic files, these are stored on a secure server accessible only by LTD personnel. Rulings can be easily identified from the electronic and physical files held by LTD. LTD also houses the EOI Unit and EOI personnel would be made aware that a ruling is being processed and possibly finalised. EOI personnel would be in charge of identifying which rulings are in the scope of the transparency framework. Given the expected small volumes of ruling applications in the jurisdiction, this process can be carried out manually. For rulings in scope of the transparency framework, EOI personnel would then identify relevant exchange jurisdictions. In case additional information is required in relation to these jurisdictions, Samoa can use its powers under the TAA to retrieve such information. Samoa is also considering to collect this information at the time the request of ruling is made by the taxpayer. LTD will be working on formalising a ruling request document that would have all the necessary information to comply with the transparency standard. Samoa also intends to provide training on the information gathering process to LTD/EOI personnel.

1048. To date, no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework have been issued as no applications have been submitted by taxpayers requiring the issuance of such rulings. As such, there was no need to identify potential exchange jurisdictions.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

1049. The accuracy of the information gathering process and the identification of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework is supervised by EOI personnel. This work is conducted via a memorandum which is reviewed by the principal EOI officer and then approved by the legal manager. The approved memorandum is then sent to the Commissioner and the Competent Authority for consideration and approval before information on relevant rulings are exchanged with the relevant jurisdictions. Given the expected small volumes of ruling applications in the jurisdiction, Samoa is able to ensure a meticulous supervision and monitoring process.

Conclusion on section A

1050. Samoa has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

1051. Samoa has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Samoa notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1052. Samoa has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) (“the Convention”) and (ii) having a bilateral agreement in force with one jurisdiction.²

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

1053. Although Samoa issued no future rulings, Samoa has indicated that the Competent Authority, within LTD, will immediately be made aware when a ruling in scope of the transparency framework is being processed. If the ruling is finalised, the EOI personnel will proceed to fill in the Annex C template based on the memorandum approved by the Commissioner and containing all relevant information and will exchange it with the relevant exchange jurisdictions according to the agreed timelines. Samoa also intends to provide LTD/EOI personnel dealing with the exchanges with training on this process.

1054. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

Conclusion on section B

1055. Samoa has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information and has a process for completing the templates in a timely way. Samoa has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1056. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1057. Samoa does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement

San Marino

San Marino has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

San Marino can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, San Marino issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	1
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2017 – 31 December 2017	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	0
Future rulings in the year in review	0

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from San Marino.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1058. San Marino can legally issue the following two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes¹ and (ii) permanent establishment rulings.

1059. For San Marino, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

1060. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that San Marino's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that San Marino's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. San Marino's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1061. San Marino has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1062. San Marino has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. San Marino notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1063. San Marino has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011_[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 24 jurisdictions.²

1065. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that San Marino's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. San Marino's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1066. San Marino has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. San Marino has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1067. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1068. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that San Marino's information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes³ were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. San Marino's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Senegal

Senegal has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review) that can be met, and no recommendations are made.

Senegal can legally issue one type of ruling within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Senegal issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Senegal.

The information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1069. Senegal can legally issue the following type of ruling within the scope of the transparency framework: cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles.

1070. For Senegal, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2016 but before 1 April 2018; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 January 2016, provided still in effect as at 1 January 2016. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2018.

1071. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that there was no need to identify potential exchange jurisdictions as no past rulings were issued during the past rulings period. In addition, it was determined that Senegal's undertakings to identify future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard, and that Senegal's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Senegal's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1072. Senegal has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1073. Senegal has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 21 jurisdictions.¹

1074. As no rulings are issued in practice, no data on the timeliness of exchanges can be reported.

1075. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Senegal's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Senegal's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1076. Senegal has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way. Senegal has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1077. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1078. Senegal does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Senegal also has bilateral agreements with West African Economic and Monetary Union jurisdictions, African and Malagasy Common Organisation jurisdictions and Belgium, Canada, Chinese Taipei, France, Italy, Kuwait, Lebanon, Malaysia, Mauritania, Mauritius, Morocco, Norway, Portugal, Spain, United Arab Emirates and United Kingdom.

Seychelles

Seychelles has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Seychelles can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Seychelles issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Seychelles.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1079. Seychelles can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

1080. For Seychelles, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

1081. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Seychelles' undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Seychelles' review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Seychelles' implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard. It is noted that the Seychelles Revenue Commission (SRC) is continuing to develop a new form to request a private ruling to capture all the needed information. Until that takes place, Seychelles would continue to use its information gathering powers under the Revenue Administration Act to obtain information on all potential exchange jurisdictions.

1082. Seychelles has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1083. Seychelles has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Seychelles notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1084. Seychelles has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 28 jurisdictions.²

1085. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

1086. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Seychelles' process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no action was required. Seychelles' implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1087. Seychelles has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information and a process for completing the templates in a timely way. Seychelles has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1088. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1089. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Seychelles' information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes³ were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Seychelles' implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Singapore

Singapore has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Singapore can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Singapore issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	1 008
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2017 – 31 December 2017	85
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	222
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	274
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	211
Future rulings in the year in review	156

Peer input was received from six jurisdictions in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Singapore. The input was positive, noting that information was complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1090. Singapore can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

1091. For Singapore, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

1092. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Singapore's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Singapore's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Singapore's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1093. Singapore has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1094. Singapore has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Singapore notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1095. Singapore has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 85 jurisdictions.²

1096. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	717	2	See below.	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	1	86 days	0

1097. Singapore notes that the two delayed exchanges were due to a failed file transmission caused by a system error during the transmission process. As there were special characters embedded in the source files used for transmission, enhancement had to be made to the system before the files could be uploaded and processed for exchange. The two delayed exchanges have since been completed. Considering the small number of exchanges that were delayed, and the fact that this is a non-recurring issue, no recommendation is made at this stage.

1098. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Singapore's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Singapore's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1099. Singapore has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Singapore has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1100. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Sint Maarten

Sint Maarten has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Sint Maarten can legally issue five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Sint Maarten issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Sint Maarten.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1102. Sint Maarten can legally issue the following five types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (iv) permanent establishment rulings; and (v) related party conduit rulings.

1103. For Sint Maarten, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 September 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 September 2017.

1104. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Sint Maarten's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Sint Maarten's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Sint Maarten's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1105. Sint Maarten has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1106. Sint Maarten has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Sint Maarten notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1107. Sint Maarten has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including being a jurisdiction participating in (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with three jurisdictions.²

1108. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

1109. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Sint Maarten's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Sint Maarten's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1110. Sint Maarten has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Sint Maarten has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1111. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1112. Sint Maarten does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Slovak Republic

The Slovak Republic has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

The Slovak Republic can legally issue two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, the Slovak Republic issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	1
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	2
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	5
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	3
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	3
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	3
Future rulings in the year in review	4

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from the Slovak Republic.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1113. The Slovak Republic can legally issue the following two types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles and (ii) permanent establishment rulings.

1114. For the Slovak Republic, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

1115. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that the Slovak Republic's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that the Slovak Republic's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. The Slovak Republic's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1116. The Slovak Republic has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1117. The Slovak Republic has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. The Slovak Republic notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1118. The Slovak Republic has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 71 jurisdictions.¹

1119. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	3	1	Mistake	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

1120. The Slovak Republic notes that one delay that occurred was caused by a human error. As soon as this delay was noted, communication regarding the necessity to comply with the exchange deadlines has taken place between the Head of the AEOI Unit and the Director of the Tax Office for Selected Entities. In addition, internal procedures have been updated and deployed to reduce the possibility of the foresaid human error. Therefore, no recommendation is made.

1121. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that the Slovak Republic's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. The Slovak Republic's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1122. The Slovak Republic has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. The Slovak Republic has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1123. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	De minimis rule applies	N/A
Permanent establishment rulings	0	N/A
De minimis rule	4	N/A
IP regimes: total exchanges on taxpayers benefitting from the third category of IP assets, new entrants benefitting from grandfathered IP regimes; and taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption	0	N/A
Total	4

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1124. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that The Slovak Republic's information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes² were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. The Slovak Republic's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Slovenia

Slovenia has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Slovenia can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Slovenia issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	8
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	2
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	0
Future rulings in the year in review	0

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Slovenia.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1125. Slovenia can legally issue the following three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (ii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iii) related party conduit rulings.

1126. For Slovenia, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

1127. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Slovenia's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Slovenia's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Slovenia's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1128. Slovenia has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1129. Slovenia has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Slovenia notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1130. Slovenia has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 60 jurisdictions.¹

1131. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

1132. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Slovenia's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Slovenia's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1133. Slovenia has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Slovenia has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1134. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1135. Slovenia does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

South Africa

South Africa has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

South Africa can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, South Africa issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	1
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	0
Future rulings in the year in review	0

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from South Africa.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1136. South Africa can legally issue the following type of ruling within the scope of the transparency framework: preferential regimes.¹

1137. For South Africa, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

1138. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that South Africa's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that South Africa's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. South Africa's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1139. South Africa's has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1140. South Africa has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. South Africa notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1141. South Africa has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 69 jurisdictions.²

1142. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

1143. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that South Africa's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. South Africa's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1144. South Africa has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. South Africa has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1145. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1146. South Africa does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Spain

Spain has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2017-2019 peer review reports, Spain had received a recommendation for collecting and exchanging information on new assets of existing taxpayers benefitting from the grandfathered IP regime (ToR I.A.1.3). Spain has resolved this issue and therefore the recommendation is now removed.

Spain can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Spain issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	146
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	28
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	46
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	22
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	19
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	43
Future rulings in the year in review	21

Peer input was received from four jurisdictions in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Spain. The input was generally positive, noting that overall information was complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1147. Spain can legally issue the following three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; and (iii) permanent establishment rulings.

1148. For Spain, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

1149. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Spain's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Spain's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Spain's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1150. Spain has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1151. Spain has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Spain notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1152. Spain has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 95 jurisdictions.²

1153. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	71	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
		1	55 days

1154. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Spain's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Spain's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1155. Spain has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Spain has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1156. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	1	De minimis rule applies
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	63	Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, France, Germany, Hong Kong (China), Ireland, Italy, Japan, Luxembourg, Malaysia, Mexico, Netherlands, Norway, Peru, Portugal, Romania, Russia, Seychelles, Singapore, Switzerland, Türkiye, United Kingdom, United States, Uruguay
Permanent establishment rulings	7	Andorra, Germany, Hong Kong (China), Italy, Switzerland, Türkiye
IP regimes: total exchanges on taxpayers benefitting from the third category of IP assets, new entrants benefitting from grandfathered IP regimes; and taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption	32 ³	Argentina, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, Chile, China (People's Republic of), Colombia, Croatia, Czech Republic, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Luxembourg, Mexico, Netherlands, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Russia, Switzerland, Türkiye, United Kingdom, United States
Total	103

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1157. Spain offers three intellectual property regimes (IP regime)⁴ that are subject to the transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]). It states that the identification of the benefitting taxpayers will occur as follows:

- New entrants benefitting from the grandfathered IP regime: Transparency obligations apply for the regimes, because grandfathering is provided to entrants that entered the regime after the relevant date from which enhanced transparency obligations apply. In the previous years' peer review reports, it was explained that Spain adopted a new tax form in August 2017 so that it could identify the new taxpayers for which the enhanced transparency requirements apply. However, Spain was not able to identify new IP assets entering the regime after the relevant date and benefitting from grandfathering. Spain was therefore recommended to identify and exchange relevant information on new assets of existing taxpayers benefitting from the grandfathered IP regime.

In order to act on this recommendation, Spain tried to include a new reporting obligation in the tax form. However, as the proposal was still pending in the court, Spain has taken alternative steps to address the issue. Based on an IT search, Spain confirms that it has identified all taxpayers able to benefit from grandfathering during the relevant period. As indicated in the statistics above, Spain has exchanged the information on those taxpayers with the relevant jurisdictions during the year in review, and therefore the recommendation can now be removed.

- Third category of IP assets: not applicable as the regimes do not allow the third category of IP assets to qualify for the benefits.
- Taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption: not applicable as the regimes do not allow the nexus ratio to be treated as a rebuttable presumption.

³ Exchanges that are made related to IP regimes are not counted as issued rulings, therefore, there is a difference between the number of exchanges and the number of issued rulings.

⁴ Partial exemptions for income from certain intangible assets for: 1) Federal regime, 2) Basque country and 3) Navarra.

Sri Lanka

Sri Lanka has been reviewed since 2017, but this is the first year that Sri Lanka provided a peer review questionnaire. Sri Lanka has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Sri Lanka can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Sri Lanka issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Sri Lanka.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1158. Sri Lanka can legally issue the following three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) rulings providing for unilateral downward adjustments; (ii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iii) related party conduit rulings.¹

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

1159. For Sri Lanka, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 April 2017; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015.

1160. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was not known whether Sri Lanka had implemented the transparency framework. Therefore, Sri Lanka was recommended to ensure that it has put in place an effective information gathering process to identify all relevant past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions and to implement a review and supervision mechanism, as soon as possible (ToR I.A).

1161. In Sri Lanka, rulings are issued by the ruling committee within the Inland Revenue Department (IRD). The ruling committee has conducted a manual review process to identify if there were any past rulings in scope of the transparency framework issued. Sri Lanka confirms that no past rulings in scope of the transparency framework were issued. As such, there was no need to identify potential exchange jurisdictions.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

1162. For Sri Lanka, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2017.

1163. As noted above, rulings are issued by the rulings committee, which is a centralised office within the IRD, consisting of senior officials (including officials from the international tax legislation unit and the transfer pricing unit). Each taxpayer requesting a ruling needs to follow the procedure that is set out on the IRD's website. The rulings committee determines for each request whether this is a ruling in scope of the transparency framework. If the ruling is in scope, the rulings committee identifies the immediate parent, ultimate parent and related parties which the taxpayer entered into a transaction with by checking the internal available information, such as the financial statements, and information collected through compliance actions. In addition, public database information can be used. If not all information is available, the rulings committee is able to request the information from the taxpayer and from third parties. For the sake of completeness, Sri Lanka indicated that it will include formal requirements in its public guidance about the relevant exchange jurisdictions. In particular, Sri Lanka will require the taxpayer requesting a ruling to provide information of the jurisdictions of its immediate parent, ultimate parent and the related parties which it entered into a transaction with. This will be monitored in next year's peer review.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

1164. The rulings committee consists of senior officials and is chaired by the Deputy Commissioner General who is responsible of issuing the final decision for each ruling. The committee is responsible for the review of the accuracy of the information obtained. Staff is trained to identify the relevant rulings in scope of the transparency framework and to identify exchange jurisdictions.

Conclusion on section A

1165. Sri Lanka has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

1166. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was not known whether Sri Lanka had the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Sri Lanka was therefore recommended to put in place a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings if needed.

1167. Sri Lanka confirms that it has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Sri Lanka notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1168. Sri Lanka has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 42 jurisdictions.²

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

1169. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was not known whether Sri Lanka has in place a process to exchange information on rulings in accordance with the form and timelines required by the transparency framework. Sri Lanka was therefore recommended to ensure the timely exchange of information on rulings in the form required by the transparency framework.

1170. Sri Lanka notes that the ruling committee is responsible for completing an internal template that has been developed and includes both the mandatory and the optional fields that are specified in Annex C of the Action 5 report (OECD, 2015^[2]). The summary section of the template has to be completed in line with the internal FHTP suggested guidance.

1171. The Competent Authority is responsible for completing the template based on the information that it receives from the ruling committee. Sri Lanka confirms that the Competent Authority needs to exchange the information within three months after the ruling has been issued, which is within the timelines required for the transparency framework.

1172. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place and no data on the timeliness of exchanges is reported.

Conclusion on section B

1173. Sri Lanka has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information and has a process for completing the templates in a timely way. Sri Lanka has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1174. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1175. Sri Lanka does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Sweden

Sweden has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Sweden can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Sweden issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	28
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	5
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	3
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	6
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	1
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	1
Future rulings in the year in review	3

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Sweden.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1176. Sweden can legally issue the following three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iii) related party conduit rulings.

1177. For Sweden, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

1178. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Sweden's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Sweden's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Sweden's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1179. Sweden has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1180. Sweden has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Sweden notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1181. Sweden has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States, (iii) the Nordic Convention on Assistance in Tax Matters and (iv) bilateral agreements in force with 70 jurisdictions.²

1182. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	3	0	N/A	N/A

		0	N/A

1183. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Sweden's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required from Sweden. Sweden's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1184. Sweden has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Sweden has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1185. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	0	N/A
Permanent establishment rulings	De minimis rule applies	N/A
Related party conduit rulings	0	N/A
De minimis rule	3	N/A

² Participating jurisdictions to the Convention are available here: www.oecd.org/tax/exchange-of-tax-information/convention-on-mutual-administrative-assistance-in-tax-matters.htm. Parties to the Nordic Convention on Assistance in Tax Matters are Denmark, Faroe Islands, Finland, Iceland, Norway and Sweden. Sweden also has bilateral agreements with Albania, Argentina, Armenia, Australia, Austria, Barbados, Belarus, Belgium, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Botswana, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, Chile, China (People's Republic of), Croatia, Czech Republic, Egypt, Estonia, France, Georgia, Germany, Greece, Hungary, India, Indonesia, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Jamaica, Japan, Kazakhstan, Kenya, Korea, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malaysia, Malta, Mauritius, Mexico, Montenegro, Namibia, Netherlands, New Zealand, Nigeria, North Macedonia, Pakistan, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Russia, Saudi Arabia, Serbia, Singapore, Slovak Republic, Slovenia, South Africa, Spain, Sri Lanka, Switzerland, Thailand, Trinidad and Tobago, Tunisia, Türkiye, Ukraine, United Kingdom, United States, Viet Nam and Zambia.

Switzerland

Switzerland has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for the timely exchange of information on past and future rulings (ToR II.B.6). Switzerland receives one recommendation on this point for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, Switzerland had received two recommendations. Switzerland has resolved one issue related to the identification of past rulings, and the recommendation is removed. In addition, efforts have been made during the year in review to address the other recommendation, but as the issue has not yet been fully resolved, the recommendation remains in place.

Switzerland can legally issue four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Switzerland issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	882 ¹
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	300
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	228
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	293
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	214
Future rulings in the year in review	234

Peer input was received from seven jurisdictions in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Switzerland. The input was generally positive, noting that overall information was complete and in a correct format. However, peer input indicated that exchanges on rulings were not timely. This is reflected in the report.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1187. Switzerland can legally issue the following four types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;² (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (iii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iv) related party conduit rulings.

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

1188. For Switzerland, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 January 2010 until 31 December 2016, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2018.

1189. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Switzerland's undertakings to identify past rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions have met all the ToR, except for identifying all past rulings within the scope of the transparency framework (ToR I.A.1.2). Therefore, Switzerland was recommended to strengthen its information gathering process identifying all past rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

1190. Switzerland confirms that no additional past rulings have been identified during the year in review, and that the identification of all past rulings is now completed. Therefore, the prior year recommendation is removed.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

1191. For Switzerland, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 January 2017, provided they are still in effect on or after 1 January 2018.

1192. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Switzerland's undertakings to identify future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Switzerland's undertakings in this regard remain unchanged, and therefore continue to meet the minimum standard.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

1193. In the prior years' peer review reports, Switzerland was recommended, as part of the efforts to enhance the information gathering process, to strengthen its review and supervision mechanism to ensure that the information gathering process is working effectively. As noted above, Switzerland has now completed the identification of all past rulings. Therefore, the prior year recommendation is removed.

Conclusion on section A

1194. Switzerland has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

1195. Switzerland has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Switzerland notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1196. Switzerland's international agreement permitting spontaneous exchange of information is the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention").³ The necessary domestic and international legal framework for spontaneous exchange of information entered into force on 1 January 2017, allowing for exchanges from 1 January 2018.

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

1197. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Switzerland's process for the completion and exchange of templates met all the ToR, except for timely exchange of information on past and future rulings (ToR II.B.6).

1198. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Past rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted by 31 December 2021	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges not transmitted by 31 December 2021	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	40	0	See below.	These past rulings were identified in 2020 and exchanged in 2021.
Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	483	136	See below.	N/A
Total	523	136

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
		0	N/A

1199. Switzerland encountered delays with the exchange of information on both past rulings and future rulings due to legal impediments, modernisation of the SEOI platform and the Covid-19 pandemic. Regarding legal impediments, Switzerland indicates that there were pending proceedings as a result of objections raised by taxpayers. With respect to the modernisation of the SEOI platform, the Competent Authority took further steps in its IT system, by making dates of rulings more visible which, as a result, mitigates delayed exchanges. In relation to the Covid-19 pandemic, Switzerland notes that it experienced delays due to restricted working conditions at the beginning of the year in review but notes that in the same year, the Covid-19 situation normalised, and the Competent Authority has been able to resume a timelier schedule. For the mentioned reasons, the number of delayed exchanges could be reduced. However, as there were still delays during the year in review, the recommendation remains in place, and the situation will be further reviewed during next year's peer review.

1200. Switzerland still encountered delays regarding the exchange of information on past and future rulings. Therefore, the recommendation to continue to ensure that all information on past and future rulings is exchanged as soon as possible (ToR II.B.6) remains in place.

Conclusion on section B

1201. Switzerland has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process except for the timely exchange of information on past and future rulings (ToR II.B.6). Switzerland is recommended to continue to ensure that all information on past and future rulings is exchanged as soon as possible.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1202. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with

Related party conduit rulings	De minimis rule applies	N/A
De minimis rule	2	N/A
Total	734

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1203. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Switzerland's information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes⁴ were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Switzerland's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Switzerland experienced delays in the exchange of information on past and future rulings.	Switzerland is recommended to continue to ensure that all information on past and future rulings is exchanged as soon as possible. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Thailand

Thailand has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for having a domestic legal framework allowing spontaneous exchange of information on rulings (ToR II.B.1). Thailand receives one recommendation on this point for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, Thailand had received three recommendations. Thailand has resolved two of these issues, regarding identifying future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework (ToR I.A.1.2) and the timely exchange of information on past and future rulings (ToR II.B.6). The other recommendation has not been fully addressed and remains in place.

Thailand can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Thailand issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	182
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2018 – 31 December 2018	36
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	157
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	23
Future rulings in the year in review	21

As no exchanges took place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Thailand.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1204. Thailand can legally issue the following type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: preferential regimes.¹

Past rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1, I.A.2.2)

1205. For Thailand, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2016 but before 1 April 2018; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 January 2016, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2016.

1206. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Thailand's undertakings to identify past rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Thailand's undertakings in this regard remain unchanged, and therefore continue to meet the minimum standard.

Future rulings (ToR I.A.1.1, I.A.1.2, I.A.2.1)

1207. For Thailand, future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2018.

1208. In the prior year's peer review report, it was noted that Thailand found that the database for future rulings issued in 2019 and 2020 might be incomplete due to a technical issue when migrating data from paper into the database. Therefore, Thailand was recommended to strengthen its information gathering process identifying all future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

1209. Thailand reports that it has revised steps and procedures for identifying future rulings and potential exchange jurisdictions, as follows. The Large Business Tax Administration Division (LBTAD) reviews all applications of International Business Centres (IBC), which is the regime on which Thailand issues tax rulings in scope of the Action 5 transparency framework. As part of its review, the LBTAD maintains a control worksheet that contains all information on the IBC and its related foreign parties. On a monthly basis, the LBTAD verifies whether the IBC control worksheet is in line with the IBC database. Any discrepancy identified are then corrected before the completed list of rulings is sent to the Exchange of Information (EOI) Unit. The EOI Unit receives the list of future rulings at the beginning of each month from the LBTAD. The list is then cross checked with the IBC database in order to ensure that each ruling is identified. The EOI Unit identifies all relevant jurisdictions by using the information included in the control worksheet. As Thailand has now strengthened this process, the recommendation on this point is removed.

Review and supervision (ToR I.A.3)

1210. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was noted that Thailand identified a technical issue with the database for future rulings issued in 2019 and 2020. Therefore, Thailand was therefore recommended to strengthen its review and supervision mechanism to ensure that the information gathering process is working effectively.

1211. Thailand reports procedures have now been strengthened. The Director of the Large Business Tax Administration Division supervises the gathering, verifying, and uploading the information into the IBC database and IBC control worksheet. The Director of the International Tax Affairs Centre supervises the exchange of information process done by the EOI Unit. Therefore, therefore the recommendation on this point is now removed.

Conclusion on section A

1212. Thailand has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

1213. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Thailand did not have the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Thailand notes that there is a legal impediment that prevents the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard. In particular, Section 10 of the Revenue Code protects taxpayers' information from disclosure to any other persons unless there is a power to do so under the law. As tax rulings concern the information of taxpayers, Thailand is prohibited to exchange them to treaty partners without requests.

1214. Thailand reports that it has now implemented a new legal provision with respect to exchange of information to address this issue, involving an amendment to Section 10 of the Revenue Code. The amendments entered into effect on 25 January 2022, and Thailand have commenced the relevant exchanges regarding the Action 5 transparency framework as of that date. This will be taken into account in next year's peer review. The recommendation for the year in review remains. Thailand is recommended to finalise the amendments to put the domestic legal basis in place to commence exchanges as soon as possible.

1215. Thailand has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 61 jurisdictions.² Thailand signed the Convention on 3 June 2020 and deposited its instrument of ratification on 22 December 2021. The Convention entered into force on 1 April 2022 and will have effect for administrative assistance related to taxable periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023.

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

1216. In the prior year's peer review report, it was noted that although the appropriate process for the completion and exchange of templates has been implemented, in practice, the Thailand Revenue Department lacked the appropriate resources to be able to complete all templates in accordance with the timelines under the transparency framework. Thailand now confirms that all templates have been completed for past and future rulings issued in and before the year in review. The exchanges of these templates will be taken into account in next year's review.

1217. During the year in review, Thailand has also strengthened its procedures for the completion and exchange of templates going forward. As noted in the previous section, the EOI Unit receives the list of future rulings at the beginning of each month from the LBTAD. The EOI Unit prepares the Annex C template accordingly and ensures that the exchange of information takes place within three months after the information became available to the EOI Unit. The summary section of the template has to be completed in line with the internal FHTP suggested guidance. The recommendation on this point is now removed.

1218. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Past rulings within the scope of the transparency	Number of exchanges transmitted by 31 December 2021	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges not transmitted by 31 December 2021	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments

framework	0	746	N/A	N/A
Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	0	1 258	N/A	N/A
Total	0	2 004

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

1219. Thailand notes that the reason that the number of (delayed) exchanges in the above table has increased compared to the previous year report is the table now reflects the number of the actual exchanges, and not the number of issued rulings.

Conclusion on section B

1220. Thailand has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process except for having in place the necessary legal framework to commence exchanges. Thailand has already taken steps to ensure the administrative practices for the completion and exchange of templates on rulings is in place in advance of the finalisation of the domestic legal framework, which will ensure as speedy an exchange process as possible. Thailand is recommended to finalise the amendments to put the domestic legal basis in place to commence exchanges (ToR II.B.1).

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1221. As there was no information on rulings exchanged by Thailand for the year in review, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1222. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Thailand offers an intellectual property regime³ for which no transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015_[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
Thailand does not yet have the necessary legal framework in place for exchanging information on rulings.	Thailand is recommended to finalise the amendments to put the domestic legal basis in place to commence exchanges. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

Türkiye

Türkiye has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Türkiye can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Türkiye issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	3
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	8
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	0
Future rulings in the year in review	4

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Türkiye.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1223. Türkiye can legally issue the following type of ruling within the scope of the transparency framework: cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles.

1224. For Türkiye, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

1225. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Türkiye's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Türkiye's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Türkiye's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1226. Türkiye has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1227. Türkiye has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Türkiye notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1228. Türkiye has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 89 jurisdictions.¹

1229. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	5	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

1230. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Türkiye's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Türkiye's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1231. Türkiye has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Türkiye has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1232. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	5	Singapore, Switzerland, United States
IP regimes: total exchanges on taxpayers benefitting from the third category of IP assets, new entrants benefitting from grandfathered IP regimes; and taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption	22 ²	Germany, Ireland, Israel, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Russia, United Kingdom, United States
Total	27

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1233. In the prior year's peer review report, it was determined that Türkiye's information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Türkiye's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement

Ukraine

Ukraine has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review) that can be met in absence of rulings being issued in practice, and no recommendations are made.

Ukraine can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Ukraine issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Ukraine.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1234. Ukraine can legally issue the following type of ruling within the scope of the transparency framework: cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles.

1235. For Ukraine, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2016, but before 1 April 2018; and (ii) on or after 1 January 2014, but before 1 January 2016, provided still in effect as at 1 January 2016. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2018.

1236. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Ukraine's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Ukraine's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Ukraine's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1237. Ukraine has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1238. Ukraine has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Ukraine notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1239. Ukraine has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 75 jurisdictions.¹

1240. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Ukraine's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no action was required. Ukraine's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1241. Ukraine has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information and a process for completion of templates and exchange of information on rulings. Ukraine has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1242. As no rulings were issued, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1243. Ukraine does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

United Kingdom

The United Kingdom has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

The United Kingdom can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, The United Kingdom issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	599
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	71
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	16
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	20
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	14
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	13
Future rulings in the year in review	13

Peer input was received from three jurisdictions in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from The United Kingdom. The input was positive, noting that information was complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1244. The United Kingdom can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) preferential regimes;¹ (ii) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; and (iii) permanent establishment rulings.

1245. For the United Kingdom, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

1246. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that the United Kingdom's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that The United Kingdom's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. The United Kingdom's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1247. The United Kingdom has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1248. The United Kingdom has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. The United Kingdom notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1249. The United Kingdom has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 155 jurisdictions.²

1250. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	18	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

1251. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that the United Kingdom's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. The United Kingdom's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1252. The United Kingdom has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. The United Kingdom has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1253. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Ruling related to a preferential regime	0	N/A
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	7	Australia, Canada, Germany, Italy, South Africa, Spain, United States
Permanent establishment rulings	11	Australia, Denmark, France, Ireland, Netherlands, Norway, United States
IP regimes: total exchanges on taxpayers benefitting from the third category of IP assets, new entrants benefitting from grandfathered IP regimes; and taxpayers making use of the option to treat the nexus ratio as a rebuttable presumption	0	N/A
Total	18

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1254. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that The United Kingdom's information gathering and exchange of information processes for matters related to intellectual property regimes³ were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. The United Kingdom's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

United States

The United States has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

The United States can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, The United States issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	114
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016	21
Future rulings in the calendar year 2017	30
Future rulings in the calendar year 2018	27
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	30
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	18
Future rulings in the year in review	26

Peer input was received from four jurisdictions in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from The United States. The input was generally positive, noting that overall information was generally complete, in a correct format and received in a timely manner.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1255. The United States can legally issue three types of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: (i) cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles; (ii) permanent establishment rulings; and (iii) related party conduit rulings.

1256. For the United States, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

1257. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that the United States' undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that the United States' review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. The United States' implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1258. The United States has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1259. The United States has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. The United States notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1260. The United States has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the original Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 53 jurisdictions.¹

1261. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments
	61	0	N/A	N/A

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	0	N/A	N/A

1262. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that the United States' process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. The United States' implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1263. The United States has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. The United States has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1264. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

Category of ruling	Number of exchanges	Jurisdictions exchanged with
Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles	61	Argentina, Australia, Austria, Canada, China (People's Republic of), Colombia, Curaçao, Denmark, France, Germany, India, Indonesia, Italy, Japan, Malta, Mexico, Netherlands, Peru, Poland, Singapore, South Africa, Spain, Thailand, United Kingdom

Uruguay

Uruguay has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Uruguay can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Uruguay issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

Type of ruling	Number of rulings
Past rulings	1
Future rulings in the period 1 April 2018 – 31 December 2018	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2019	0
Future rulings in the calendar year 2020	0
Future rulings in the year in review	0

As no exchanges were required to take place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Uruguay.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1266. Uruguay can legally issue the following type of ruling within the scope of the transparency framework: cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles

1267. For Uruguay, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2016 but before 1 April 2018; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 January 2016, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2016. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2018.

1268. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Uruguay's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Uruguay's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Uruguay's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1269. Uruguay has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

1270. Uruguay has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Uruguay notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1271. Uruguay has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention") and (ii) bilateral agreements in force with 22 jurisdictions.¹

1272. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework	Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted	Delayed exchanges
		Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority	Reasons for the delays	Any other comments

Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling	Number	Average time to provide response	Number of requests not answered
	1	74 days	0

1273. During the year in review, no exchanges were required to take place. Uruguay received one follow-up request for an exchange transmitted in 2019.

1274. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Uruguay's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Uruguay's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1275. Uruguay has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Uruguay has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Viet Nam

Viet Nam did not provide a completed peer review questionnaire to the Secretariat. Viet Nam has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), except for having in place a process for completion of templates and exchange of information on rulings (ToR II.B). Viet Nam receives one recommendation on this point for the year in review.

In the prior year's peer review report, as well as in the 2017-2019 peer review reports, Viet Nam had received the same recommendation. As it has not been addressed, the recommendation remains in place.

Viet Nam can legally issue one type of ruling within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Viet Nam issued no rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

As no exchanges took place, no peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Viet Nam.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

1278. Viet Nam can legally issue the following type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework: cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles.

1279. For Viet Nam, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2015 but before 1 September 2017; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2012 but before 1 January 2015, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2015. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 September 2017.

1280. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Viet Nam's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Viet Nam's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Viet Nam's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

1281. Viet Nam has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

Legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information (ToR II.B.1, II.B.2)

1282. Viet Nam has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Viet Nam notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

1283. Viet Nam has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including bilateral agreements in force with 76 jurisdictions.¹ Viet Nam is not a party to the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011_[1]) ("the Convention"). Viet Nam is encouraged to continue its efforts to expand its international exchange of information instruments to be able to exchange information on rulings. It is noted, however, that jurisdictions are assessed on their compliance with the transparency framework in respect of the exchange of information network in effect for the year of the particular annual review.

Completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B.3, II.B.4, II.B.5, II.B.6, II.B.7)

1284. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Viet Nam's process for the completion and exchange of templates met all the ToR, except for the completion and exchange of templates (ToR II.B). Therefore, Viet Nam was recommended to continue to put in place a process to complete the templates for all relevant rulings and to ensure the timely exchange of information on rulings in the form required by the transparency framework.

1285. In 2020, Viet Nam continued to work on the development of a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings, to make them available to the Competent Authority for exchange of information, and to exchange them with relevant jurisdictions. This process has been further developed in 2021, following the issuance of a revised APA regulation (i.e. Ministry of Finance's circular no. 45/2021/TT-BTC dated 18 June 2021) and the restructuring of the Large Taxpayers Department, including refinement of Large Taxpayers Office's functions. Viet Nam indicated that further detailed instructions on the implementation of this process are going to be developed in the year in review. However, it is not known whether Viet Nam has undertaken this work during the year in review and therefore, for the year in review, the prior year recommendation remains.

1286. It is not known whether Viet Nam issued rulings during the year in review. Therefore, no data can be reported on the timeliness of exchanges of information.

Conclusion on section B

1287. Viet Nam has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information. It is not known whether Viet Nam developed a process for completion of templates and exchange of information on rulings (ToR II.B). Viet Nam is recommended to develop a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

1288. It is not known whether rulings were issued. Therefore, no statistics can be reported.

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

1289. Viet Nam does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.

Summary of recommendations on implementation of the transparency framework

Aspect of implementation of the transparency framework that should be improved	Recommendation for improvement
It is not known whether Viet Nam developed a process for completion of templates and exchange of information on rulings.	Viet Nam is recommended to develop a process to complete the templates on relevant rulings and to ensure that the exchanges of information on rulings occur in accordance with the form and timelines under the transparency framework. This recommendation remains unchanged since the 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 peer review reports.

OECD/G20 Base Erosion and Profit Shifting Project

Harmful Tax Practices – 2021 Peer Review Reports on the Exchange of Information on Tax Rulings

INCLUSIVE FRAMEWORK ON BEPS: ACTION 5

Under the BEPS Action 5 minimum standard, members of the OECD/G20 Inclusive Framework on Base Erosion and Profit Shifting (BEPS) have committed to counter harmful tax practices with a focus on improving transparency. One part of the Action 5 minimum standard is the transparency framework for compulsory spontaneous exchange of information on certain tax rulings. The exchange on tax rulings is a critical tool in improving access of tax administrations to information relevant to assess the corporate tax affairs of their taxpayers and to efficiently tackle tax avoidance and other BEPS risks. Over 135 countries and jurisdictions participate in the Inclusive Framework on BEPS and take part in the peer review process to assess their compliance with the transparency framework. Specific terms of reference and a methodology have been agreed for the peer reviews, focusing the assessment on five key elements: information gathering process, exchange of information, confidentiality of the information received, statistics on the exchanges on rulings, and transparency on certain aspects of intellectual property regimes. This report reflects the outcome of the sixth annual peer review of the implementation of the Action 5 minimum standard.
