

Greece

Greece has met all aspects of the terms of reference (OECD, 2021^[3]) (ToR) for the calendar year 2021 (year in review), and no recommendations are made.

Greece can legally issue one type of rulings within the scope of the transparency framework.

In practice, Greece issued rulings within the scope of the transparency framework as follows:

| Type of ruling | Number of rulings |
|--|-------------------|
| Past rulings | 1 |
| Future rulings in the period 1 April 2016 – 31 December 2016 | 0 |
| Future rulings in the calendar year 2017 | 0 |
| Future rulings in the calendar year 2018 | 2 |
| Future rulings in the calendar year 2019 | 0 |
| Future rulings in the calendar year 2020 | 1 |
| Future rulings in the year in review | 0 |

No peer input was received in respect of the exchanges of information on rulings received from Greece.

Information gathering process (ToR I.A)

518. Greece can legally issue one type of ruling within the scope of the transparency framework: cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles.

519. For Greece, past rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued either: (i) on or after 1 January 2014 but before 1 April 2016; or (ii) on or after 1 January 2010 but before 1 January 2014, provided they were still in effect as at 1 January 2014. Future rulings are any tax rulings within scope that are issued on or after 1 April 2016.

520. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Greece's undertakings to identify past and future rulings and all potential exchange jurisdictions were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. In addition, it was determined that Greece's review and supervision mechanism was sufficient to meet the minimum standard. Greece's implementation remains unchanged, and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

521. Greece has met all of the ToR for the information gathering process and no recommendations are made.

Exchange of information (ToR II.B)

522. Greece has the necessary domestic legal basis to exchange information spontaneously. Greece notes that there are no legal or practical impediments that prevent the spontaneous exchange of information on rulings as contemplated in the Action 5 minimum standard.

523. Greece has international agreements permitting spontaneous exchange of information, including: (i) the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters: Amended by the 2010 Protocol (OECD/Council of Europe, 2011^[1]) ("the Convention"), (ii) the Directive 2011/16/EU with all other European Union Member States and (iii) bilateral agreements in force with 57 jurisdictions.¹

524. For the year in review, the timeliness of exchanges is as follows:

| Future rulings within the scope of the transparency framework | Number of exchanges transmitted within three months of the information becoming available to the competent authority or immediately after legal impediments have been lifted | Delayed exchanges | | |
|---|--|---|------------------------|--------------------|
| | | Number of exchanges transmitted later than three months of the information on rulings becoming available to the competent authority | Reasons for the delays | Any other comments |
| | 1 | 0 | N/A | N/A |

| Follow-up requests received for exchange of the ruling | Number | Average time to provide response | Number of requests not answered |
|--|--------|----------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| | 0 | N/A | N/A |

525. During the year in review, Greece transmitted one exchange of information relating to a ruling issued in 2020. Greece confirms that the exchange was done in a timely manner.

526. In the prior years' peer review reports, it was determined that Greece's process for the completion and exchange of templates were sufficient to meet the minimum standard. With respect to past rulings, no further action was required. Greece's implementation in this regard remains unchanged and therefore continues to meet the minimum standard.

527. Greece has the necessary legal basis for spontaneous exchange of information, a process for completing the templates in a timely way and has completed all exchanges. Greece has met all of the ToR for the exchange of information process and no recommendations are made.

Statistics (ToR IV.D)

528. The statistics for the year in review are as follows:

| Category of ruling | Number of exchanges | Jurisdictions exchanged with |
|--|--------------------------------|------------------------------|
| Cross-border unilateral APAs and any other cross-border unilateral tax rulings (such as an advance tax ruling) covering transfer pricing or the application of transfer pricing principles | De minimis rule applies | N/A |
| De minimis rule | 1 | N/A |

Matters related to intellectual property regimes (ToR I.A.1.3)

529. Greece does not offer an intellectual property regime for which transparency requirements under the Action 5 Report (OECD, 2015^[2]) were imposed.
